A retreat parade will be held in the same area at 4:15 p. m. and the public is invited to watch this event also.

To attend the parade and see the missile display, visitors are requested to enter the Arsenal through Gate 14, which may be reached from the 4-lane highway by following Jordan Lane onto the Arsenal. Military police will direct visitors to the OGMS area. Visitors will not be required to

For the past two years Col. Shinkle has been in the office of the Chief of Ordnance, Research and Development Division, where he served as executive officer.

The new deputy commander is a West Point graduate with wide experience in the ordnance field. He is the son of Gen. and Mrs. E. M. Shinkle, who live in retirement at San Francisco.

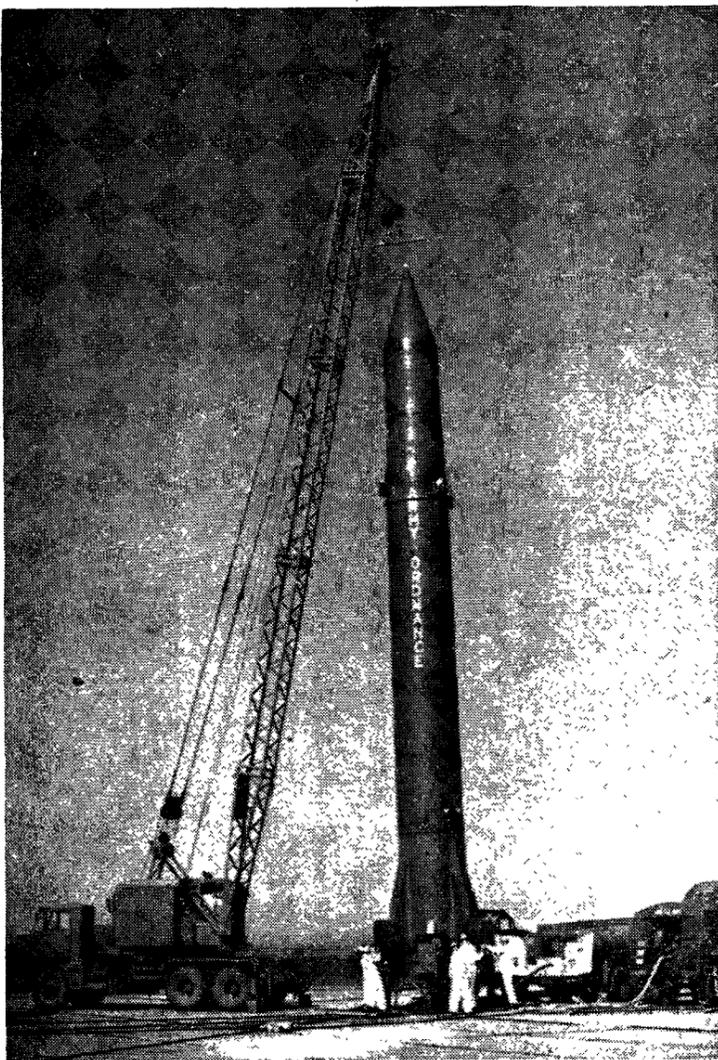

Col. Shinkle graduated from the U. S. Military Academy in 1933 and was commissioned a second lieutenant in the artillery. He served 4 years in California and Hawaii before enrolling in the Ordnance School at MIT in 1937.

Later, the colonel also attended a year-long ordnance school at Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Md., and remained there for a four-year tour of duty.

He was assigned to the China Theater during World War II and immediately following the war became a member of the Marshall mission to China.

From 1947 to 1950 Col. Shinkle was chief of the San Francisco Ordnance District, leaving that post to serve 18 months in Brazil and some 2½ years at White Sands Proving Grounds, N. M. He was transferred from White Sands to the Pentagon in Washington two years ago.

Col. Shinkle is married to the former Emily Harris of Pacific Grove, Calif., and they have three children. The family will join the colonel at Redstone July 1.

REDSTONE MISSILE TO BE DISPLAYED—The giant Redstone guided missile, shown above being erected by crews at Redstone Arsenal where it was developed, will be on display to the general public for the first time in this area on Thursday, June 14, which is the 181st anniversary of the organization of the U. S. Army. The big missile will be shown at Redstone Arsenal as part of the post's observance of the Army Birthday. The only previous time the Redstone Missile has been publicly displayed was in Detroit on May 19, Armed Forces Day. Engineers Award Contract for Work

Colonel Harold E. Bisbort, Army District Engineer at Mobile, has announced the award of a contract in the amount of $39,991 to Incho's Mechanical Contractors of Birmingham for making mechanical modifications and additions to some existing facilities at Redstone Arsenal.

The Birmingham firm will construct additions to the mechanical ventilation systems in five company and battalion administration buildings, to the outside water hose faucets for 15 buildings, and to the interior plumbing systems in four company administration buildings.

Army Engineers expect the contractor to start work around the middle of June.

Brig. Gen. Herbert D. Vogel, (Ret.), chairman of the board of the Tennessee Valley Authority, will address the Huntsville Post, Society of American Military Engineers, in a public meeting here June 20.

The announcement was made by Col. A. H. Lahlum, assistant engineer of the Mobile District, U. S. Corps of Engineers, who has

Gen. Vogel, a 1924 graduate of the U. S. Military Academy, has been chairman of the TVA board since Sept. 1, 1954.

The Society of American Military Engineers is a group of civilian and military engineers interested in the U. S. military defense.

FIRST SPECIAL SERVICE AWARD AT REDSTONE—Mrs. Dorothy Mintz, of the Personnel Office of the Army Ballistic Missile Agency, is shown receiving a $200 Special Service Award from the Incentive Awards Committee for her work during the period January 1956 through April 1956. This was the first award of its type to be presented on the Arsenal. Brig. Gen. J. A. Barclay (left), deputy commander of ABMA, presented the award to Mrs. Mintz. Looking on are R. F. Mello, chief of the ABMA Personnel Office, and R. J. Carboni, chief, Salary and Wage, ABMA. The supervisor who recommended Mrs. Mintz for the award stated that in 15 years service with Army Ordnance, Mrs. Mintz' performance was the best he had ever seen.

FEATURING NEW BATH HOUSE

Post Swimming Pool 'Open For Business'

The post swimming pool — featuring a brand-new bath house—opened for hot-weather business last week.

The just-completed bath house is of concrete block construction with all modern plumbing facilities, individual showers, and also individual dressing booths in the ladies' section.

A complete new picnic area is being set up near the swimming pool, and the whole pool area is being landscaped.

Before opening date, the concrete-bottomed pool itself was scrubbed down by crews of workmen to get it as clean as possible for bathers.

All buildings, walkways, pool steps, towers, and diving boards were given fresh coats of paint.

The swimming pool will be open from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. seven days a week, according to Capt. Frederick W. Davis, Special Services Officer. The pool will be reserved for enlisted men and their dependents and guests on odd days of the month, and for officers and their dependents and guests on even days.

ID or PX cards are required for entrance to the pool.

Qualified and adequate lifeguards will be on duty at the pool at all times during open hours, Capt. Davis stated. Persons are asked to please refrain from approaching the guards except on

Military Government Branch of Reserve Unit Seen Likely

As a result of a recent meeting with Major Arden B. Crowder, senior unit advisor, Decatur submilitary District, during which the enrollment applications of Reserve officers were examined, it appears likely that a Military Government Branch of the Huntsville USAR Satellite School will be established on Sept. 1, 1956.

Due to the rapid influx of new personnel at Redstone Arsenal, the date of enrollment has been extended to July 1 to allow these Reserve officers to enroll. It is necessary that 201 files be screened at Alabama Military District Headquarters before final approval of their eligibility, so it is imperative that change of address forms (DA 603) be sent in immediately for transfer of personnel records to Birmingham.

Enrollment forms may be obtained from C. W. Huth at RSA business, he added. Swimming instructions will be given by Mrs. Alene Schaum, formerly swimming instructor at Pasadena (Calif.) Junior College. She will also teach water ballet to persons interested.

SECURE OUR SECRETS

The word "secure" can be a verb or an adjective. According to the dictionary it may mean:

1. To shield or guard,
2. To be in safe keeping or possession,
3. To be sure or certain of,
4. Free from doubt and anxiety.

All these meanings have a bearing on the safeguarding of military secrets in the hands of industrial employes.

All security regulations and procedures prescribed by the Government are designed to shield and guard classified information.

People are entrusted with these secrets only after it is known that they will be safe in their possession and keeping.

It is the duty of these people to be certain that classified information is not exposed or compromised by indiscreet talk or improper care in handling or in storage.

To those having access to classified information there can be no freedom from doubt or anxiety, unless they know, in all certainty, that every precaution has been taken to SECURE OUR SECRETS.

GEN. HICKEY'S ARMY BIRTHDAY MESSAGE REPRINTED

(Editor's note: Reprinted below is a message from Lt. Gen. Thomas F. Hickey, Third Army commander, concerning the forthcoming 181st Army Birthday on Thursday, June 14.)

Thursday, 14 June 1956, marks the 181st anniversary of the birthday of the United States Army.

To you, the members of Third Army, I commend this as an occasion for thoughtful reflection and contemplation concerning the glorious history and traditions, present accomplishments and obligations, and future missions of this, our senior military service.

From its first beginnings as the instrument that won liberty, freedom, and independence for thirteen struggling colonies, to its present stature as the largest and most versatile arm of a defense team that is the hope and the principal strength of the free world, the Army has played a consistently eminent role in the growth and development of our great nation. Its unbroken record of victories fills the pages of our national history from Concord Bridge to Heartbreak Ridge.

Always ready and on the alert, to guard our chosen way of life against those who seek to destroy it, our soldiers have stood firmly against aggression from our enemies, often far beyond the confines of our own shores. Many of our men and women are on guard against such aggression at this very moment at our outposts around the world.

But the Army has done far more than act as our defender in time of war and our guardian in time of peace. Since its very birth its men, from Lewis and Clark, Pike and Fremont, to those responsible for the Manhattan Project and its atomic bomb, have been instrumental in pushing ever outward our geographic and scientific horizons.

As we pause on this occasion to honor the organization in which we serve, let us, through faith in Almighty God, renew with pride and inspiration our dedication to the maintenance of the glorious ideals and the magnificent record of accomplishments of all the members, living and dead, of our great Army.

Venson Birdwell of the General Supply Branch will be gone the month of June, attending an extended course at Atchison Cave, Kansas, on processing, preservation, and maintenance of records on Industrial Machine Tools. Upon his return he will serve as an instructor in a similar course to be given here at Redstone. Since Venson was to be gone a month he carried his wife and teen-age son with him. What a nice way to spend a vacation while you work.

Redstone Depot was well represented at the Task Force Presentation on Ordnance Command Management System given last week at the Rocket Auditorium. This course was designed to further develop managers within the Ordnance Corps.

If you should hear someone speak of programming, would you know what it was all about? Well, you can ask most anyone within the Depot and receive a good definition for we have been quite busy preparing our Work Schedules for FY 57. The draft was forwarded to the Management Office for approval around 1 June.

Charles C. Williams has returned to work after being off for several months due to an automobile accident in which his back was broken. Charles, we are glad to have you back.

Jack Calder and family are vacationing in Florida this week. Hope the cool air we are having will not prevent them from enjoy-

Lt. Stookey to Represent 3rd Army In All-Army Track Meet in Calif.

Through the present season Lt. James Stookey has been a consistent winner in inter-post competition in his specialties, the hop, step and jump and the broad jump. In spite of his many duties, he also doubles as the coach of the track team which shows the results of his labors on their behalf.

On the strength of his showing in the Third Army Meet, in which he won the broad jump with a leap of 22'4" and was barely edged out in the hop, step and jump in spite of his effort of 46'4", he was chosen to represent Third Army in the All-Army Track Meet at Fort MacArthur, California.

Lt. Stookey has been participating in track for 10 years since he was a junior in high school. He continued through college, being a member of the Auburn varsity track team for three years, specializing as a sprint and broad jumper.

He entered the military service in 1953 at Fort Campbell, Ken., representing that post in the 1954 Third Army Track Meet. In 1955 he represented Redstone Arsenal in the Third Army Meet and won the hop, step, and jump. That same year he went to the All-Army Meet at Fort Riley, Kansas, and took third in both the hop, step and jump and the

DETACHMENT "A"

9330 TV

By Warren Le Mon

Alpha congratulations to Pvt. Raymond Hase of our detachment who was awarded the accolade, Soldier of the Month, by Troop Command 9330. This title is given each month to that soldier who by reason of his conduct and appearance reflects credit on the entire unit. It is both a fine incentive and an excellent reward.

Good news for all Alphas! The post swimming pool opened on 7 June, after a complete overhauling by Post Engineers, Special Services, and several of our own men. The site of the pool is among the loveliest on the Arsenal, also among the highest and coolest. The hours of operation are 1000-2100 daily, even days for officers and odd days for EM.

The inauguration of PT this past week aroused the wild cry of the Nunu Bird. This bird hovers over Redstone supposedly looking out for the welfare of the troopers. I mentioned to the Old Campaigner how badly the Nunu felt about the troops taking PT. I should have known better. "Nunu Bird indeed! Feeling sorry for the troopers! If that feathered freak gets within range of my saber, I'll obliterate him as if he were Deputy Assistant of Roads and Grounds in Moscow!" "You think his grief unwise?" "Absolutely! What he doesn't realize is that there's a PT Test coming up in two weeks. We not only want the men to make a good showing, but we want them to be reasonably in shape to take the test. And they can only be in shape by exercising!" "Where are you going?" I ask-

Cost Accountants Directors Hold Meet

A joint meeting of the new and old boards of directors of the North Alabama chapter of the National Association of Cost Accountants was held last night at the Pitts Motel in Decatur.

Retiring president Frank E. Donilon, Jr., of Tusculumbia presided; Donilon, Jr., of Tusculumbia presided incoming president Stanley A. Veatch of Huntsville presented his plans for the new year.

Also discussed was the chapter's plans to participate in the International Cost Conference in Chicago June 25 through 27.

Raymond C. Stribling of Sheffield, conference chairman, reported plans for attendance, and also participation in an Alabama hospitality room sponsored jointly by the four chapters in Alabama, Birmingham, Coosa Valley, Mobile and North Alabama. J. Grady Shaw of Decatur, vice president of Stevenson trophy points, reported on the drive to ed. "To find that Nunu Bird. Perhaps 50 squat benders on Linton Field at dawn will shake some sense into him!"

A man of iron, indeed. Without trying to dislocate our shoulders, I am certain all soldiers in this detachment extend congratulations to the United Army which is celebrating its 131st Birthday on 14 June, Flag Day.

bolster the chapters national trophy standing and to insure victory in the challenge race with the Mobile chapter.

sign in at the gate to attend the Army Birthday event.

Visitors are reminded that cameras are not allowed.

Maj. General John B. Medaris, commander of the Army Ballistic Missile Agency at Redstone, will be the reviewing officer for the parade. Several awards to troops are scheduled.

The 296th Army band from Ft. McClellan — which played for the parade in Huntsville on Armed Forces Day, May 19 — will perform for the retreat parade next Thursday, and will also play at other times between 2 and 7 p. m.

The invitation to the public to attend the Army Birthday events was extended by Gen. Medaris, by Brig. Gen. H. N. Toftoy, Arsenal commander, and by Col. Henry S. Newhall, commandant of the OGMS.

Arsenal personnel are invited to bring their families out to see the parade and displays.

Social activities scheduled for Arsenal military personnel in connection with the Army Birthday include the following Anniversary Dances: at the NCO Open Mess on June 16, at the Service Club on the 13th, and at the Officers Club on the 15th.

The official time for the celebration of the Army Birthday has been designated as "The U. S. Army — America's Most Versa-

Executive Secretary
Incentive Awards Committee

Employees at Redstone have chalked up another $11,953 in savings and collected an additional $600 in awards.

Mrs. Dorothy Mintz, Salary and Wage, ABMA, received $200 for tile Fighting Force."

Plans for Redstone's participation in this year's observance are being handled by a committee headed by Lt. Col. Dante Vezzoa Special Service Award. She saved at least $3,000 plus intangibles in expediting a "crash" work project and consequently was presented a Special Service Award of $200. The criteria for this type of an award is outlined in paragraphs 12-14, AR 672-301. The Executive Secretary of the Incentive Awards Committee is drafting a summary of these requirements which will be published in the very near future.

Curtis Austin, Redstone Depot, is second place in awards. He received $160 for suggesting the use of a Rotoblast in reclaiming machines. This suggestion will save over $5,289 a year. J. D. Pope, Structures and Mechanics Lab (ABMA), received $85 for suggesting a special multi-purpose tool for assembling A & N fittings. Fifty dollars went to Harvey L. McCrary, Photo Lab, for a lens board adaptor used in copy-camera work. This suggestion saves $926 a year.

Post Engineer's, Hoyle W. Beam earned $25 for suggesting an improved method for manufacturing plexiglass parts. This idea saved $450. Leonard Gurley, Redstone Depot, recommended the construction of a restroom at the Ammunition Holding Yard. Since there are no facilities in the area, the adoption of this suggestion was a health and morale improvement. Doyle Ealy, Fabrication Lab, ABMA, received $15 for improving an assembly fixture.

Five cash awards in the amount of $10 each went to: Messieurs James G. Cassidy (2 awards) and Frederick M. Eslick, both with ABMA; Del C. Nickelson, Industrial Division and Alfred L. Chambers, Post Engineer Division.
