

TRAVELING BIRD—Our Hawk missile system, widely deployed by U.S. and allied forces, is going to South Vietnam. The Defense Department announced Sunday that a Hawk battalion was being moved there from elsewhere in the Far Pacific to provide air defense. The move was described as a "precautionary measure" by Defense Department spokesmen. The Missile Command's armament subsystem which fits the HU-1B helicopter with 2.75 rockets has been in use in South Vietnam for some time.

Flight Test Conference Scheduled

Two top-level Army Missile Command executives will take part in the Flight Testing Conference to be held Feb. 15-17 at Redstone Arsenal. The conference is sponsored by the American Institute of Aeronautics and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

John L. McDaniel, Technical Director of the Missile Command's Directorate of Research and Development, will be chairman of the session on Methods of Analysis. This will be held at 10 a.m. on Feb. 15. Five papers will be presented during this classified session.

Dr. W. W. Carter, Chief Scientist of the Missile Command, will be speaker for the luncheon to be held the first day of the Conference. This will be at the Redstone Officers Open Mess.

Missile Command Spends $1 Million

The Army Missile Command spent more than a million dollars in the Southeast during January to purchase the goods and services that support the Army's missile and rocket programs at Redstone Arsenal.

Companies in states outside the Southeast received more than three million.

The largest share of the spending in Alabama was with Huntsville merchants where the orders totaled approximately $540,000. Birmingham companies were awarded $120,000, and those in other Alabama cities, $83,000. Awards amounting to $295,000 went to firms in Tennessee, Georgia and Mississippi.

Civilians To Have New Recreation Area

GROUND BREAKING—Col. Thomas Cooke, Redstone Arsenal Commander, throws the first spade full of dirt to open construction on the Civilian Recreation Area on the banks of the Tennessee River. Joining the Post Commander for the ground breaking ceremonies are: (left to right) Abner McNaron, chairman of the Civilian Welfare Fund Council; William R. Henry, Post Engineers; and Dennis Garrison, representative of the Redstone Lodge of the American Federation of Government Employees.

One of the most complete recreation areas in North Alabama will be available for use by Arsenal civilian employees of the Army and their guests by early summer.

After several months in various stages of planning, construction of the park was started on Monday of this week following a brief ceremony at the site during which Col. Thomas Cooke, Arsenal Commander, turned the first spade of dirt.

The recreation area will be available for limited use by mid-April and is expected to be in full operation by the end of June, according to Abner McNaron, chairman of the Civilian Welfare Fund Council.

When completed the park will have picnic tables, barbecue pits, boat launching slips, badminton and shuffle board courts, horse shoe pits, and two lighted softball diamonds. A modern rest room facility is also included in the construction and will be available by summer.

Located along the Tennessee River on Arsenal property just off the southern end of Patton Road, the park is being constructed by the Post Engineers under the direction of the Civilian Welfare Fund Council.

In commenting on the largest project ever undertaken by the Civilian Welfare Fund Council at Redstone, McNaron said that the recreation area, "Will fulfill a (See CIVILIAN on Page 3)

Citizens Turn Out To Say Goodbye To Greek Friends

Huntsville residents who had befriended Greek students at the U.S. Army Ordnance Guided Missile School bade farewell to some 60 missilemen and their families Friday at Huntsville-Madison County Airport.

Huntsville Mayor Glenn H. Hearn and representatives of the Greek Community were included in the list of friends on hand to see the Greeks off. The graduates and their families departed for John F. Kennedy Airport, New York. In New York, they boarded an international jet bound for Athens, Greece.

OGMS Commandant William J. Macpherson and Maj. George Deligianis, Greek liaison officer, exchanged tokens of appreciation at a formal farewell ceremony.

BLOODMOBILE SCHEDULE

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will be in building 7110 from 8:30 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 17.

Lt. Longcor Named Aide

A Millboro, South Dakota, Army officer has been named aide-de-camp to Brig. Gen. Charles W. Eifler, Deputy Commanding General, Land Combat Systems, Army Missile Command.

Second Lt. Clarence R. Longcor assumed his new assignment Monday following graduation from the Army Ordnance Guided Missile School, also located at Redstone Arsenal.

Lt. Longcor was commissioned as a reserve officer in the Ordnance Corps in February, 1964, following graduation from the South Dakota School of Mines and Technology, Rapid City, S.D. He holds a BS degree in Electrical Engineering. Prior to his attending the Ordnance Guided Missile School, he completed officer's (See LT. LONGCOR on Page 3)

Executive Committee Is Ready For Fund Drive

The administration of the 1965 Joint Fund Drive on the Arsenal will be in the hands of a three-man executive committee headed by Enoch Sparks.

Maj. Gen. John G. Zierdt announced the selection of Sparks to serve as executive chairman for the drive last week. The chairman, in turn, named Leonard Twinem and Horace Williams as his top assistants. The key workers within the directorates and staff units will be named within a few days.

The Joint Fund drive, in support of the National Health Agencies and the Joint Crusade, will be conducted over a four-week period starting March 15.

It is one of two voluntary fund raising solicitations authorized at the Arsenal each year under the Redstone Arsenal Fund Raising Coordinating Committee headed by Stanley G. Wilkins.

The drive is a sealed-envelope type campaign with all contributions being forwarded to the state headquarters for the drives for accounting. There will be no quota or fair share established, according to Sparks, with all personnel asked to contribute according to their own desires.

Twinem, like Sparks, is an employee of the Supply and Maintenance Directorate. He was named executive secretary. Williams, of (See FUND DRIVE on Page 3)

Leave A Heritage Of Splendor

Litter is a national problem. As such it even blights Redstone Arsenal despite sincere control efforts. Litter is the result of careless habits and thoughtless manners. Basically, it is a disregard for the rights and property of others.

Many Americans feel no personal responsibility for the appearance of public property and thoughtlessly leave a trail of trash. They have no idea of the staggering amount that accumulates or the great cost and the arduous endeavor required to remove it.

More than $500,000,000 is spent each year to collect litter. About one-tenth of this amount is used to clean up primary highways alone. Litter is a fire hazard that causes over 57,000 building fires annually. Litter is a health menace. It creates a breeding ground for disease-carrying insects and rodents. Littered waters make it dangerous for swimming, fishing and boating. Finally, there is the cost that cannot be measured in dollars and cents—the unsightliness of the litter that mars the beauty of America from coast to coast.

The prevention of littering is everyone's responsibility. All can help by keeping property litter-free, by disposing trash in proper receptacles, and by encouraging others to correct careless litter habits. The Federal Assimilation Crimes Act prohibits littering on the Arsenal. Littering is also unlawful in much of the country. However, instead of the legal consideration, littering should be curbed by pride in the appearance of the installation, the community, and the nation. Please, for the benefit of yourself and others, keep Redstone Arsenal and America clean. Leave a heritage of splendor!

Col. William Luk

Scout Oath Applies To All Americans

"On my honor I will do my best:
To do my duty to God and my country . . ."

You may recognize the above words as the beginning of the Scout Oath of the Boy Scouts of America, but the same beginning could serve as well for the oath of the American serviceman, or the oath of any American.

Compare it with the words of the late General of the Army Douglas MacArthur in his farewell address to the graduating class at West Point in 1962. General MacArthur, who remains in the minds of many as perhaps America's greatest military leader, began his speech with the words:

"Duty, Honor, Country . . ."

The Boy Scouts of America celebrates its 55th anniversary Feb. 7-13. Theme of the anniversary program is "Strengthen America's Heritage."

It is not a new program for the Scouts. For 55 years they have strengthened the heritage of this nation. The creed of the Boy Scout, from Cub to Explorer, encourages reverent, resolute and responsible patriotism. A good Scout can explain to anyone what he believes is his heritage, who created it, who preserved it, who defended it, and how.

No person can fully estimate the influence of the Scouts' character-building, citizenship training and physical fitness programs. By training boys aged 8 to 17 to keep themselves "physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight," the Boy Scouts of America has constantly supplied this country with men who are prepared to be its leaders.

Many former Boy Scouts are now U.S. servicemen stationed in Viet-Nam, Laos or other "hot spots," making full use of the vigorous training they received in the Scouts. Former Scouts are well represented on America's Mercury astronaut team. Many of these men still participate actively in the scouting program because they know the great value the country will receive from these future leaders.

On its 55th birthday, the Boy Scouts of America and its 5.5 million members deserve the gratitude of the nation and a sincere wish for an equally productive future. (AFPS)

Col. Sigerfoos Is 3rd Army Surgeon

Col. Edward Sigerfoos assumed the duties of Surgeon, Third US Army, this month.

Formerly commanding officer of USA Hospital, Fort Jackson, S.C., prior to this assignment, he succeeds Col. Angvold Vickoren who retired in January.

Col. Sigerfoos, son of a World War I Army general, was graduated from the University of Michigan Medical School and entered the Army at Letterman General Hospital in 1936.

During and immediately after World War II, Col. Sigerfoos served as Surgeon to the 17th, 101st, and 82nd Airborne Divisions in Europe.

Among his post war assignments have been as Director, Gorgas Hospital, Canal Zone, Deputy Commander, Brooke General Hospital, Ft. Sam Houston, Surgeon to the United Nations Command, US Forces Korea and Eighth US Army, and Commanding Officer of the Army's Medical Training Center at Brooke Medical Center.

He is a graduate of the Command & General Staff School, the Armed Forces Staff College, and the Army War College.

TechArt Show Announced

The Huntsville Chapter of the Society of Technical Writers and Publishers have announced Feb. 10-Mar. 24 as the entry dates for the 1965 Technical Art Show. Invitations and rules are being mailed this week and are available at the Civic Arts Center, 311 W. Clinton.

Over 300 individuals from governmental, industrial and educational organizations representing some 30 states have received awards in the past two years.

STWP's show is designed not only to give the individual technical illustrator and artist an opportunity to exhibit and gain recognition but to acquaint the general public with the ultimate potential of graphic presentation of technical information.

Judging is scheduled Mar. 18 and 19. All entries will be judged by a panel selected on the basis of eminence in their respective fields. The identity of the judges is not disclosed until after the judging. This year's panel will include representatives from Smithsonian Institute, Technical Illustrator's Management Association and the National Association of Industrial Artists.

Selected entries will be exhibited at the Huntsville Utilities Building from Mar. 29 through Apr. 5 and at the Civic Arts Center throughout the month of April.

Winners will be announced and awards presented during STWP's Technical Communications Seminar Apr. 2.

Culture Behind and Ahead Represented By Grads

Ancient cultures and 20th Century electronics were represented Friday at the U.S. Army Ordnance Guided Missile School in a ceremony involving Britain, Greece, Korea and America.

The keynote speaker was Lt. Col. William Graham, British Liaison officer at the School who is reassigned to London after almost three years here.

More than 50 missile students who completed courses in Hawk and Nike Radar were graduated at a ceremony. Two Greek students received the highest academic award presented by the Army at the School. 2/Lt. Basil Staltos of Athens and M/Sgt. Nikolaos Vartzakos of Lygerea-Gythiou received Association of the U. S. Army plaques for maintaining averages of better than 96 per cent.

Addressing the students, Graham recalled the early days of radar when crude equipment utilized a hit-or-miss system and when, as a pioneer in radar, his only tools were products of "my father's tool kit."

"Today's radar is a complex system within a complex system, and the demand on maintenance men has increased tremendously," Graham told the group.

Sportsmen Begin Cleanup Campaign On Ponds

The Redstone Arsenal Sportsman's Club has undertaken a project to develop three ponds on the military reservation, which could climax with their being restocked with game fish.

The ponds—known as Finance Ponds—are located near the Finance and Accounting Office building a mile-and-a-half from the Tennessee River. The largest pond covers approximately four acres. Col. Thomas W. Cooke, Commander, Army Missile Command, has given his approval to the first two steps of the conservation project, which call for the removal of dense underbrush and dead trees on the banks, and placement of refuse containers around the area.

The 100 members of the newly-organized club are working voluntarily on the pond project every weekend. They started Jan. 16, according to Gunnery Sgt. Irving C. Latham, third vice-president, and have cleared off about an acre on the south side of the largest pond. The cut underbrush is being used in a "brush pile" project in other areas of the reservation to provide cover for quail and rabbit, and also prevent erosion.

Latham said the wooded area around the ponds has been infested with snakes, mostly poisonous cottonmouths. Clearing out the underbrush will leave the snakes at the mercy of their natural predators, such as hawks.

The long-range plan for the ponds has not been fully implemented at this time. Later work could be the removal of rough fish and undesirable vegetation from the bodies of water and stocking them with bass and other game fish.

WATERTOWN PEOPLE VISIT HUNTSVILLE, REDSTONE—Thirty-nine people from Watertown Arsenal, which will be shut down by 1967, were in Huntsville three days last week to look over the community before deciding whether to move here. Approximately 130 employees of the Massachusetts installation in missile work may be transferred to the Army Missile Command over a three-year period. During the visit, the group toured the Arsenal and spent some time in the Directorates of Supply and Maintenance, Procurement and Production, and Research and Development, where they are being offered jobs. They spent a half-day with the Huntsville-Madison County Chamber of Commerce and were given information on housing, schools, churches, shopping centers and weather in this area. A bus tour of the city and look at a model home and apartment building was also on the schedule.

FEDERAL CODE TO BE AUSA LUNCH SUBJECT

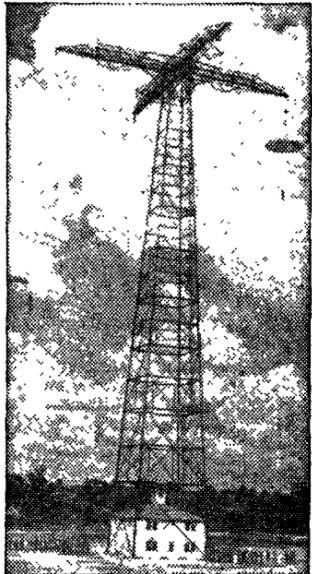

The code of conduct for all military and civilian personnel connected with the Federal Government will be examined in detail at a luncheon of the Tennessee Valley Chapter of the Association of the U.S. Army to be held at the Redstone Officers Mess today.

Roy Wood, chief of the Marshall Space Flight Center's Inspection Office, will speak at the "dutch treat" luncheon at which Maj. Gen. John A. Barclay, chapter president, will officiate.

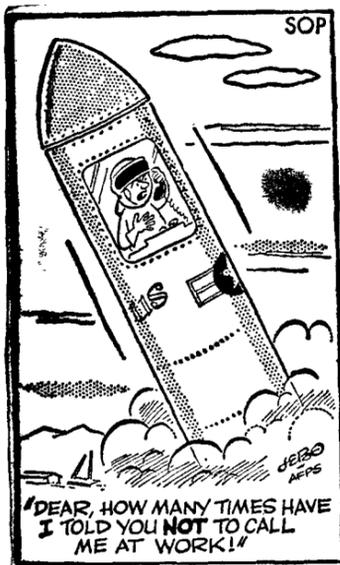

Barclay said the event is one of a series that is planned to last only one hour.

Wood's discussion is expected to cite the most recent rulings on the code which was announced last November and governs the actions and relationships of contractors, civil service and military personnel.

Wood is a former chief of the National Academy of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Washington. He spent 20 years with the FBI prior to joining NASA here in 1963.

PUPPETS HAVE THE MESSAGE—(Left to right): Sally Colquitt, Sharon Hocker, Andrea Garrabrant and Bernetta Gregory hold the puppets they manipulated for a television skit depicting proper care of teeth and gums. This is National Dental Preventive Care Week and the Redstone Arsenal Girl Scout Troops cooperated with the Post Dental Surgeon, Lt.

Col. James T. Thompson, in getting the message across. The girls helped make the puppets, and the puppet stages to earn points for badges.

Girl Scouts Tie Their Puppet Show To Teeth

A trio of Girl Scouts in Troop 18 cribbed a bit from fairy tales and came up with a puppet show that presents some cogent reasons why all the world should brush as it says in every toothpaste ad.

The three, Lynn Mehlinger, Mary Elizabeth Eifler, and Loma Luczak, worked with their Troop Leader, Mrs. R. S. Kinch.

All of the Girl Scout troops at Redstone Arsenal contributed to the skits and helped make puppets, posters and puppet stages. Troops 241 and 224 under Mrs. M. W. Pfenninger and Mrs. E. W. Schroth combined to record a Do-Re-Mi skit, and the late patrol of 224 under Mrs. Orville O'Neal made posters.

Juniors in 191, led by Mrs. R. P. Gregory and Mrs. R. P. Davidson, made sock puppets used in (See GIRL SCOUTS on Page 10)

SNOW WHITE TEETH AND PRINCE FLUORIDE—Mary Elizabeth Eifler and Lynn Mehlinger hold the stick puppets they used in a television skit which they also helped write. Loma Luczak was the other member of the author team. They completed the project as Girl Scouts in cooperation with the Arsenal Dental Surgeon, Lt. Col. James T. Thompson.

READY TO SHOOT—Cheryl Yarkin and Linda Reinhard pause before the camera. Their sock puppets are recorded in a television skit emphasizing proper methods of caring for teeth. The skit is scheduled over local television stations. They are members of Girl Scout Troop 13.

DIRECTORS, AUTHORS AND STAGEHANDS—The Girl Scout Troops worked together, making puppets, writing scripts, making stages and posters for television skits recorded at the Ordnance Guided Missile School. The skits will appear over the two Huntsville stations, WAAY-TV and WHNT-TV, to point up the fact that this is National Dental Preventive Care Week. Left to right are: Lynn Mehlinger, Mary Elizabeth Eifler, Loma Luczak, Mrs. B. R. Luczak and Mrs. J. S. Hocker. Mrs. Luczak is the director, Mrs. Hocker the publicity coordinator, and the girls are authors, actors, and puppet makers.

several skits, recorded music for the Toothache skit and painted the stage while Mrs. J. W. Verbeek's Juniors in 13 made styrofoam teeth puppets for Snow White. The late patrol for 191 is led by Mrs. E. R. Lewis.

The Cadettes in Troops 196 and 130 under Mrs. Angelo Greek and Mrs. J. E. Brown helped prepare the Growing Up Tree Skit.

Everyone in Girl Scouting was involved in some way and a few who don't ordinarily mix in Girl Scout affairs. Mrs. W. B. Reinhard is the Service Unit chairman for the Scouts on post; Mrs. B. R. Luczak was program director, and Mrs. M. W. Pfenninger was musical director.

Bunny Nagle and Diane Richards prepared the scripts written by the authors mentioned earlier. In addition, Lynn Mehlinger made stick puppets for Snow White.

This involvement in puppets began with Lt. Col. James T. Thompson when he began to promote dental health measures. Among the youths the Post Dental Surgeon lectured to were Scouts in the local schools. Lt. Col. C. R. Richards agreed to coordinate a film project with the Ordnance Guided Missile School's television branch and Lt. Pete Foley was appointed project officer. Tom Carpenter, worked as a director and PFC Jeff Albert was the production assistant. Pvt. Tim Sheets worked in a piano background with SP5 Doug Parks on the guitar.

The Girl Scouts earned points, and the production was offered to the local television stations to promote Preventive Dental Health Week, the subject on which Lt. Col. Thompson and his staff are lecturing in the Madison County and Huntsville schools.

ELECTRONICS MEN TO HEAR SHALLON

Shelton C. Shallon, Chief Scientist for the Surveyor Program at Hughes Aircraft Company will speak at the monthly meeting tonight of the Huntsville Section of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers. Shallon's topic will cover a "Review of Surveyor Development Program."

Shallon obtained a BS and MS in EE from Northwestern University where he served as a graduate assistant in the Department of Electrical Engineering. In 1949 he became a project engineer for Collins Radio Company. At Collins and under the sponsorship of the National Bureau of Standards he collected the first large-scale statistics on scatter propagation of UHF.

He joined Offner Electronics Inc. in 1950 where he was project engineer responsible for engineering and production of electroencephalographs, electroshock therapy equipment, biological amplifiers, and direct-writing industrial recorders. Shallon joined Hughes in 1953 and has since held various management positions. In 1963 he was appointed to his present position of Chief Scientist, Surveyor Program for Hughes Aircraft.

Col. Nicholson To Talk To Navy

Lt. Col. A. J. Nicholson, DFC, RA, a United Kingdom exchange officer serving with the Lance Project Office at the Army Missile Command, will address the study body of the Naval Reserve Officers School in Huntsville tonight.

His speech on leadership is set for 7 p.m. at the U.S. Naval Reserve Training Center on Barnett Street.

Col. Nicholson has been working with missiles since 1956, when he was stationed at Ft. Bliss, Tex., for nine months. He recently came to the Army Missile Command and lives with his wife and two sons at Monrovia.

He was educated at Beaumont College and the Royal Military Academy, Woolwich, England. During World War II, he was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross for valour as an artillery observer.

RAY H. LEE

Lt. Col. Lee Named New Executive

Lt. Col. Robert A. Robinson, Jr., who has served as executive officer at the Army Ordnance Guided Missile School, turned over his post Monday to Lt. Col. Ray H. Lee, former director of the Department of Individual Training at the School.

The change came about to facilitate Robinson's assignment to Korea in March. Until his departure from OGMS, the former executive officer will be a special assistant to the School commandant.

Robinson has served OGMS for the past three years, taking over as chief of the Office of Operations in 1962. A native of Houston, Texas, he attended Texas A&M College.

"Lt. Col. Robinson brought a wealth of ordnance experience in combat and peacetime to his position as executive officer. This enabled him not only to carry out the duties of that post but also to research and write several new studies that will be significant in the application of the new TECSTAR and COSTAR concepts," Col. William J. Macpherson, commandant said.

Both TECSTAR and COSTAR deal with Army Reorganizations for support of combat troops.

Lt. Col. Lee, a graduate of Texas A&I, served as commander of the 74th Ordnance Battalion in Korea prior to his assignment at OGMS.

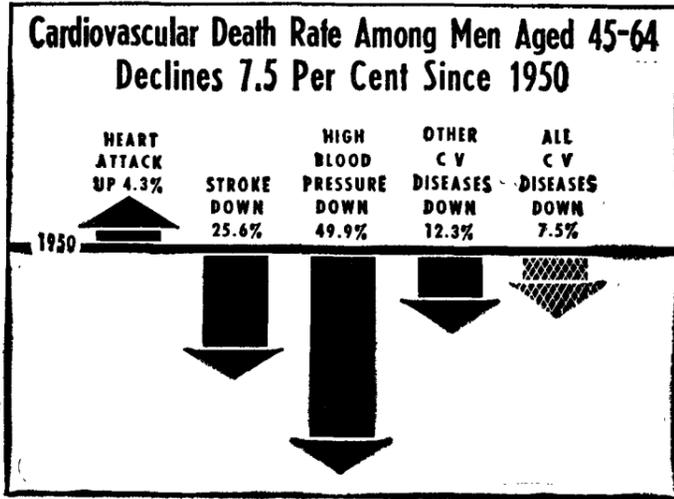

Reserves Schedule February 12 Dance

The Reserve Officers have scheduled a dance at the Redstone Officers Open Mess Friday night, beginning at 8:30 p.m.

Mrs. Charles F. Shields is chairman of the decorations committee. Gene Louis' Orchestra will play.

Mrs. John L. Edgar, C. F. Shields, Paschal Redding and John H. Graham are handling the ticket sales.

Mrs. Edgar is president of the Reserve Officers Association Ladies. At a recent meeting she appointed Mrs. W. W. Potter, Mrs. John H. Graham, and Mrs. J. A. Justin to nominate a new slate of officers. The election will be in March. At the same meeting Mrs. J. V. Johnston was appointed membership chairman.

HEART RESEARCH IS SAVING LIVES! Arrows show changes which have taken place, 1950-62, in the cardiovascular death rate for American men aged 45-64. Despite a 4.3 per cent increase in the death rate due to heart attack, there was an over-all decline of 7.5 per cent—thanks largely to dramatic decreases in death rates associated with high blood pressure and stroke. Over 100 million Heart Fund dollars have been channeled into heart research since the first Heart Fund Campaign in 1949.

Tonight's Game Will Test MPs Leadership

The Military Police hopes for a clean sweep of Redstone Arsenal basketball honors for the year will be on the line tonight when the final game of the post-season tournament is played at the Post Gym.

The unbeaten winners of the regular season league schedule will be matching baskets with the survivor of play in the loser's bracket of the meet. The Officers, Hq, STC and C Company quintets met in a pair of games earlier in the week for the right to challenge the MPs for the title.

Should the MPs lose tonight's game, another game will be played tomorrow night to decide the championship. The game tonight and the one on Thursday, if it is necessary, will start at 7 p.m.

The regular season winners reached the final round of the meet with consecutive victories over the Support Command, 4th ETC and the Officers. Only in the latter game were they pressed.

In that game the Officers jumped off to an early lead and led for most of the game until Bill Watkins led an MP rally that provided a 67-64 win. Watkins ended the evening with 27 points while Johnny Bowen tossed in 24 for the Officers.

The Officers had captured a pair of wins over 1st ETC and the STC five. STC has wins over C Company and the Support Command, while C Company came back from the opening round loss to record wins over 1st ETC and 4th ETC.

When President Eugene C. Pettinger of the new Redstone Arsenal Sportsmen's Club rapped the meeting to order Monday night (Feb. 8), the sound of the gavel echoed back to Mount Sinai before the time of Christ.

The gavel, which is the club's first, is partly made of Shittim Wood, a rare tree known to grow only in two places on earth—the penninsular of Sinai between the Mediterranean Sea and the Red Sea, and the mountains of North Alabama.

Shittim Wood is referred to in the Bible. When the Israelites came to the Promised Land and Moses came down from his retirement with God on Mount Sinai, he told the children of Israel to bring free-will offerings of gold, silver, gems, linens, furs, died skins . . . and Shittim Wood. The orange-brown wood was used in the walls, pillars, tables and altars of the sanctuary of God—the Jewish Tabernacle. Not only was it useful, but was considered very precious and sacred.

A man who has carved hundreds of gavels out of Shittim Wood, Oscar S. Jackson of the Army Ordnance Guided Missile School, made the mallet for the Sportsmen's Club. The head is of oak, and the handle of Shittim Wood from a tree which grew on the slopes of Monte Sano Mountain.

Monte Sano has become well known for its stands of gnarled Shittim Wood trees. The six to eight inch trees, which look a lot like Dogwood, grow 20 feet tall there. They have brownish scaly bark and a simple leaf, with small feather clusters of flowers which burst open in Spring about the time the leaves are full-grown.

Monte Sano has become well known for its stands of gnarled Shittim Wood trees. The six to eight inch trees, which look a lot like Dogwood, grow 20 feet tall there. They have brownish scaly bark and a simple leaf, with small feather clusters of flowers which burst open in Spring about the time the leaves are full-grown.

tuary of God—the Jewish Tabernacle. Not only was it useful, but was considered very precious and sacred.

A man who has carved hundreds of gavels out of Shittim Wood, Oscar S. Jackson of the Army Ordnance Guided Missile School, made the mallet for the Sportsmen's Club. The head is of oak, and the handle of Shittim Wood from a tree which grew on the slopes of Monte Sano Mountain.

TB: the Problem that Won't Go Away

610,000 Americans still have active tuberculosis or are classified as "high risk" individuals.

NUMBER OF PEOPLE

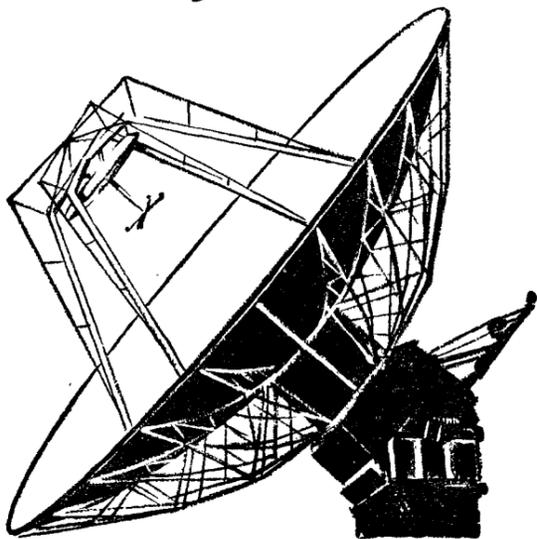

- A. 110,000 are known to have active tuberculosis.
- B. 250,000 are recently recovered TB patients, many of whom are subject to relapse.
- C. 250,000 are known to have had contact with new active TB cases recently reported.

610,000 persons, all told, are now in the TB picture—either as actively ill patients or in the "high risk" category. Christmas Seal funds help provide the hope and the means of achieving ultimate control and eradication of tuberculosis in the U. S.

Beware of Cupid this week! Even though Leap Year is over, you aren't safe because Cupid may be pointing his arrow in your direction. In order to keep Mr. Cupid alive, we have planned two of our programs with the theme of love in mind.

Tonight, at 6 p.m., Molly will be serving you a delicious buffet supper. If you are unable to enjoy the food prepared for you this evening, check the schedule for the snack night held later in the month. Twice a month we will be serving you buffets that you won't want to miss.

The main lounge is reserved for card players on Thursday evening, at 7:30 p.m. All card games will be played; come and participate in your favorite game.

Do you have a birthday this month? If you do, we want to help you celebrate it on Friday evening, at 8 p.m.

Hot coffee will be served to you on Saturday afternoon, Feb. 13 at 3:30 p.m.

In keeping with the Valentine theme Cupid's Musical Quiz is planned for Saturday evening, at 8 p.m. Come down and see if you can identify the love songs of today and yesterday.

On Sunday morning coffee and donuts will be served, at 9 a.m.

The Junior Hostesses are wondering who will be named the Junior Hostess of the Year on Sunday evening at the Sweetheart Ball, at 8 p.m. The dance will be semi-formal. Come out in your best attire for the occasion and dance with your favorite Hostess to the music of Larry Lloyd.

An evening of games has been designated for Monday, Feb. 15, at 8 p.m.

Did you say that you were a champion of the checker board? You have a chance to display your skill on Tuesday, Feb. 16, at 8 p.m.

During the remaining weeks of the month a jam session; the Third Army Show, "Merrily We Roll Along;" and two record dances, "Swing and Sway" and "Tops in Pops" have been scheduled.

See you at the Service Club.

Fiat Outsells All Other Autos Among Common Market Countries

Fiat is far and away the hottest selling car in the six Common Market countries, according to statistics recently released by the European Economic Community.

A tally of passenger car registrations at the end of September, 1962, in Belgium, Holland, Luxembourg, France and West Germany and Italy shows Fiat with a total of 428,234. Closest competitors are Volkswagen with a total of 381,320 sales, and Renault with 248,516 registrations.

Additional figures show that Fiat is not only the best selling make but also the most popular import among these countries. Exclusive of Italy, Fiat has marked up a total registration of 114,417 in the E.E.C. countries. Volkswagen follows by less than half, exclusive of Germany.

We also sell some superior domestic used cars.

Sound funny coming from a Volkswagen dealer? It's a fact.

We get all kinds of cars as trade-ins.

As they come in, our mechanics put each one through a rigid 16-point safety and performance check. The ones that pass get the complete treatment. They're renovated, rehabilitated, tuned-up, tightened-up, washed and polished, inside and out.

Whether they're chevies, fords, caddies, or used VWs, every one has proved itself good enough to carry our reputation around in it.

Trade-ins that don't pass the exam? They don't even see our used car lot.

We can't afford the luxury of selling anything but the best.

Habit, you know.
