Season Brings Help To Needy Families In Area

SAM MATHIS—Employed by Government for 40 years.

Two Receive Longevity Pins Totalling 70 Years

Two veteran Redstone Arsenal civilian employees were honored for their long and dedicated Federal service last Friday during a recognition ceremony in the office of Maj. Gen. John G. Zierdt, Commanding General of the U.S. Army Command.

L. S. Sam Mathis was presented the ruby-studded service pin in recognition of his 40 years service and Jesse C. Fanning was the recipient of a 30-year service award. Both are employees of the U.S. Army Missile Support Command.

In making the presentation to Mathis, Gen. Zierdt noted the fact that it was only the fourth time that a 40-year service pin had been presented at the Arsenal.

A native of Cecil, Ga., Mathis began his career with the Federal Government in 1917 when he enlisted in the Army in Atlanta. Mustered out of the service soon after the close of World War I, he worked in Atlanta for a few

In keeping with the year-end policy of The Redstone Rocket, there will be no Rocket next week. Your next issue of the Rocket will be that of Jan. 5, 1966. Happy New Year!

Arsenal Protestant Gifts Will Build Korean Chapel

A Chapel will be built in South Korea through the generosity of Protestant parishioners of Redstone Arsenal.

Army Chief of Chaplains Maj. Gen. Charles E. Brown recently made an appeal for funds to build chapels for Republic of Korea troops after he had talked with former U. S. 8th Army Commander Gen. Charles H. Howze (Ret.) and Maj. Gen. Kim Yun Bae of the ROK Army.

Redstone Arsenal Post Chaplain (Maj.) John P. Kirkland, Jr., passed on this appeal to his congregation during a Sunday service. Response was so substantial that the Protestant Fund Council decided to take contributions from three Sunday services at the Arsenal's two chapels to build the one chapel in Korea at a cost of $1,000.

Council members who worked on the project are: Col. C. D. Sterner, chairman, Col. C. E. Chapman, Capt. David Landrum, Capt. George C. Kahl, and Capt. Richard L. Andrist, custodian.

The Post Chapel averages around 350 each Sunday in the congregation, Redstone Park Chapel about 90.

No government funds are available to the ROK Army chaplains nor to U. S. Advisors in Korea to build chapels in that country.

PRESIDENT SENDS LT. GEN. ENGLER TO VIETNAM POST

WASHINGTON, — Lt. Gen. J.E. Engler, Commanding General of the Army Supply & Maintenance Command, was named Monday by President Johnson to a new post, Deputy United States Commander in Viet Nam.

A White House spokesman said the appointment of Gen. Engler, a logistics expert, did not indicate any major step toward an expanded military buildup.

There was no immediate indication of who would succeed Gen. Engler in the only three star slot within the U. S. Army Materiel Command.

The White House said the new

Elements Of Commands Pitch In To Give Cheer

Every year as the calendar rushes closer and closer to Christmas, elements of the Missile Command and the Support Command undertake projects to make Christmas more enjoyable for some less fortunate than they.

This year is no exception. The Consolidated Supply Division for the tenth straight year has adopted 55 people. One family is undergoing hardship as the result of a fire which destroyed the home of a family of ten children and their parents. This family has moved into the four room house which was already occupied by the man's mother and her two teenagers, and another invalid son, his wife and five preschool children, having a rough go at finding work at this season. The second male parent is invalided.

The Consolidated Supply committee has gathered food, clothes, and coal to help tide them over until the three families can find a way to fend for themselves. The committee has even acquired furniture, a stove and refrigerator for the burned out family of 12.

Another family only has three members but the mother is the breadwinner in the cotton patch and behind an ironing board. One son is paralyzed, the other mentally retarded.

The fifth family has seven children and no father; a sixth 5; and a seventh 3.

One mother with a 12-year-old daughter is mentally incapable of holding a job.

A former Consolidated Supply employee with a low pension, illness of the father and need to feed and clothe five children spurred his co-workers with the desire to do something especially nice for him and his family this year.

Another former employee, widowed with a two-year-old and a seven months old baby, is also being helped. She cannot return to work because her parents are invalids and there is no one to leave her children and parents with.

O'Reilly And Kirkpatrick Receive Executive Awards

George O'Reilly and Wallace Kirkpatrick have been singled out for their outstanding contributions to the Missile Command mission by being selected to receive the MICOM Senior and Junior Executive awards respectively.

Maj. Gen. John G. Zierdt, Commanding General of the Army Missile Command, made the presentation to the outstanding Missile Command employees at an awards ceremony on Monday.

The Executive Awards are made locally to give special recognition to civilian employees who have exhibited exemplary performance of their assigned duties and have made notable contributions in the administrative field.

O'Reilly is Chief of the Program-Budget Division in the Office of the Comptroller and Director of Programs, Kirkpatrick is a program specialist in the Advanced Research Projects Agency (ARPA) Division of the Research and Development Directorate.

Honorable mention for the Senior Executive Award was made to Lonnie Hightower, deputy project manager of the Hawk Project Office. Allen Compton, of the SAM- (See EXECUTIVE on Page 2)

IN THE NEW YEAR

Our Unfolding Challenges

"Ring out the old, ring in the new, Ring, happy bells."

—Alfred, Lord Tennyson

As 1965 fades into history, we join with the poet in looking toward the bright hope of 1966 and accepting the unfolding challenges of a New Year.

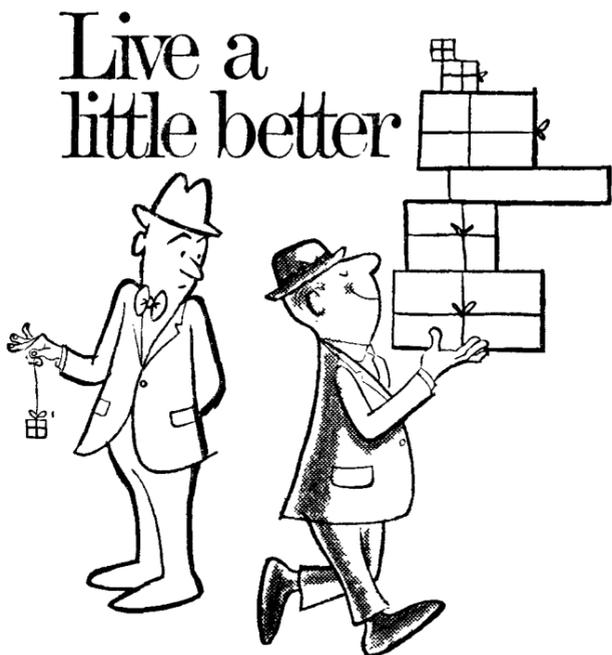

We are pledged to assist free nations in their efforts to establish a more tranquil and secure future—a future that is free from oppression, ignorance, poverty, and disease.

In the New Year, we will not falter. We will remain firm in our commitments. And we will not fail to bear any burden or endure any hardship in the defense of the Democratic way of life we hold so dear.

We resolve to heed the lessons of the past, knowing full well the truth of Pericles' statement that "Freedom is the sure possession of those alone who have the courage to defend it." But we look to the future and reaffirm our faith in the ideals of free men and rededicate our faith in the ideals of free men and rededicate our thoughts our words, and our deeds to helping the Liberty Bells of 1966 ring out for all peoples.

We realize as did the late Sir Winston Churchill during Britain's darkest hours that "We have before us an ordeal of the most grievous kind. We have before us many, many months of struggle and suffering." But we take up our tasks of the New Year in buoyancy and hope. We are certain that our cause will not be suffered to fail among men.

We claim the aid of all freedom-loving men, and echo the appeal of Sir Winston in saying, "Come, then, let us go forward together with our united strength." (ANF)

EXECUTIVE

D Project Office, was given honorable mention for the Junior Executive Award.

In winning the Senior award, Mr. O'Reilly was cited for his truly remarkable organizational and administrative ability in directing the activity of the Program-Budget Division.

A native Huntsvillian, O'Reilly started his career with the Federal service in 1942 when he was one of the first employees hired to work at the Huntsville Arsenal.

Later that same year he entered active duty with the Army at Camp Seibert near Attalla and was assigned to the Chemical Corps. He remained in this branch throughout his service and was released in July 1946.

However, soon after O'Reilly resumed his military career and was released once more in September 1949. He went to work for the Chemical Corps at Edgewood Arsenal, Md., as Chief of the Budget and Fund Control Division, in the Comptroller's Office.

He remained at the Maryland installation until late in 1956 when he returned to Redstone and was named Deputy Chief of the Financial Management Office for the Army Ballistic Missile Agency.

O'Reilly was named to his present position in August of 1962.

He is married to the former Miss Louise Brooks, of Meridianville, and the couple are the parents of three sons.

The award for employees under post was created on the recommendation of Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara.

A spokesman said Gen. Engler will have across the board responsibilities in his post as deputy to Gen. William Westmoreland without special emphasis on supply and maintenance, but added that Gen. Engler's background obviously will be of value in his new post in South East Asia.

36 went to Kirkpatrick in recognition of his exercise of exceptional judgement and aggressive leadership in solving the technical and administrative problem which confronted his organization.

It was the second time he had been nominated and last year he was the runner up for the award.

Kirkpatrick came to Redstone in 1958 from his home in Haleyville to accept a position as clerk in the Field Service Division. He has made a rapid climb since his initial appointment to his present position as Chief of the Administrative and Reports Section of the Directorate's Program Coordination Office.

The dedication to duty and determination to better himself that has marked his career at Redstone was cited in his nomination for the Executive Award. It said, "His executive abilities are such that he has been delegated full authority for the budget control of ARPA funds."

The Junior Executive is married to his high school classmate, the former Miss Doris DeFoor, and they are the parents of two sons. Mrs. Kirkpatrick is employed in the Missile Command's Office of the General Counsel.

CHRISTMAS GIVING—Sarah Mathis of the Consolidated Supply Division holds one of the little dresses donated for the Christmas box of a family whose home was burned. There were ten children in all and the parents who escaped only with what they were wearing when fire broke out.

CHRISTMAS CHAIRMAN—Mary Berry, chairman of the Consolidated Supply Division's Christmas Charity program is flanked on the left by Edith Sherertz and on the right by Sarah Mathis standing amid some of the clothes and toys they gathered for ten families in want at Christmas.

who have gathered such items as regular milk for specified periods for the underprivileged children and other items to help them exist are: Mary Berry, chairman; Sarah Mathis, Helen Thomas, and Edith Sherertz, Jesse Draper, Monroe Hodges, Tom LaVann, and Erskine Brown. Frank Bowling was a committee member until he became ill.

The Cataloging Division of the Supply and Maintenance Directorate, also adopted a family whose home was destroyed by fire. The children are 3, 2 and 5-months and the parents are just 24. They are living in a borrowed house and in need of almost everything. Among the donations is a small refrigerator for the children's milk and other perishables.

Cataloging also plans to help a 19-year-old co-worker who was hospitalized in a car-train wreck at Decatur. He has no insurance to cover his hospitalization.

The Committee members for the Cataloging Division are James B. Gay, chairman; Della Graser, Hettie McGough, Shirley Wheeler, Berry Hodges and Doris West. This is the tenth year these people have pitched in to help someone in need at Christmas.

In the Low Altitude Branch of the Supply Division two families are being sponsored. In both families the father's are disabled. One family has six children, the other has two adults. The committee gathered food, toys and money. Members of the committee are: John R. Williams, Ernie Danes, Mary Cook, Patty Love-lady. Delivery will be made today.

Not to be outdone in the Technical Publications Branch of S and M, a committee has adopted four families, one with 12 children. All told, there are 33 children involved in their project. The committee members who visited the families found them modest in their wants: a sixteen-year-old girl wants a skirt and blouse, a twelve-year-old boy said he would be satisfied with a pair of tennis shoes. This committee includes Merle Adams, Rex Luna, Rusty Richter, Caroline Swearingen and Wanda White, Pat Hall and Sarah Rice.

HORN OF PLENTY—Three of the committee members in the Consolidated Supply Division's charity program display some of the foodstuffs they have assembled to distribute among ten families, representing 55 people. Front to back are: Monroe Hodges, Jesse Draper and Erskine Brown.

JANGOS TELL FAVORITE

Some of the households where JANGOS live around Redstone should be full of Christmas goodies this year if the favorite holiday recipes the girls present here are any example.

The JANGOs (Junior Army-Navy Guild Organization) serve as nurses aides in the Post Hospital, Dental Clinic, and at the Bloodmobile, but they can cook too.

Loma Luczak, the Guild president, leads with this easy and calorie packed delight.

Heavenly Hash

- ½ C. butter
- 2/3 C sugar
- 2 whole eggs
- Whipped cream
- 1 small can crushed pineapple
- 1 C chopped nuts
- 1 small box vanilla wafers

Cream butter and sugar. Beat eggs and add, mixing well. Add pineapple and nuts. Alternate the mixture with layers of crushed wafers to make three layers in a baking dish. Set away in refrigerator to ripen (8-24 hours). Serve garnished with whipped cream.

A dish for which the South is famous and is universally enjoyed was contributed by Susan McBrearty.

Southern Pecan Pie

- 1 C granulated sugar
- 4 eggs
- 1 C brown Karo syrup
- 2 tbsp butter
- 1 C broken pecan meats
- 1 tsp vanilla

Blend soft butter with sugar. Add eggs and beat well with a fork. Stir in the syrup, nuts and vanilla. Pour in unbaked pie crust and bake 45 minutes in 375 degree oven.

Denise and Danielle Marcelle need to be twins to do all the preparation involved in this traditional delicious recipe.

English Plum Pudding

- ¾ C sifted flour
- 1 tsp salt
- ¾ tsp baking soda
- 1 tsp cinnamon
- ¼ tsp nutmeg
- ½ tsp mace
- ½ lb. raisins (chopped)
- ½ lb. dried currants (chopped)
- ¼ lb citron (chopped)
- 1/8 lb. lemon peel (chopped)
- 1/8 lb. orange peel (chopped)
- 1/8 lb. blanched almonds (chopped)
- ¾ C hot milk
- ½ C fine bread crumbs
- ½ lb. brown sugar
- 4 eggs
- ½ lb. suet (chopped)
- ¼ C fruit juice
- ½ C jelly

Sift flour, salt, soda and spices together. Stir in fruit and almonds. Pour milk over bread crumbs and let stand 10 minutes. Beat sugar with egg yolks until light and fluffy. Add suet and crumbs to egg yolk mixture; stir into flour, fruit mixture. Add fruit juice and jelly and mix thoroughly; fold in stiffly beater egg whites. Fill greased mold 2/3 full, cover tightly and steam 3½ hrs. Serves 12. Use grape, plum or currant jelly.

Plum Pudding Sauce

- ¼ C butter
- 1 C powdered sugar
- 2 tbsp. cider
- 2 eggs
- ½ C rich milk or cream
- Cream butter and powdered sugar. Add cider and well-beaten yolks of eggs. When well mixed, stir in milk or cream. Cook in double boiler until it is thick as custard and then gradually pour it into the beaten whites of the eggs, beating constantly.

For a variation on a pecan pie recipe, Pat O'Connor suggested this one:

Pecan Pie

- 3 eggs
- 1 C granulated or brown sugar
- 1 C light corn syrup
- 1 C pecan halves
- 1 tsp vanilla extract
- ½ recipe plain pastry

Beat eggs and sugar until thick, add corn syrup, nuts meats and vanilla, pour into 9" pastry lined pie pan. Nut meats may be sprinkled over filling after pouring in crust, if desired. Bake in slow oven (300 degrees) 1 hour.

This delectable recipe from Leslie Reed is one to file away for use next year if one wants it for the holidays, but it is so good that there seems no real necessity to wait for such festive occasions. The recipe says this is best made two months ahead.

The President's Cake

- 1 lb. butter
- 1 lb. sugar
- 1 lb. flour—browned and sifted
- 12 eggs, beaten separately
- 5 lb. seeded raisins
- 1½ lb. shredded citron peel
- 1 glass grape jelly
- 2 tsp. melted chocolate
- 1 lb. crystalized cherries
- 1 lb. crystalized pineapple
- 1 lb. blanched almonds
- 1 lb. pecans, cut fine
- 1 tsp. allspice

- 1 scant tsp. powdered cloves
- 1 glass grape juice
- 2 tsp. rose water

Soak almonds overnight in rose water and the fruit in grape juice. Cream butter and sugar. Add well beaten egg yolks, then spices, grape jelly and chocolate. Next add beaten egg whites and half of flour. Roll fruit in remaining flour, mix into cake small quantities at a time. Add nuts last. Bake or steam in small or large molds from four to six hours. If steamed, dry out in slow oven one hour. If baked use very low temperature. When partly done, decorate tops with nuts and candied fruit. Wrap and put in cans and baste regularly with wine, brandy, rum, etc. Best made at least two months ahead.

RECIPES FOR CHRISTMAS

Mallory Roedy's recipe, she says, may sound unusual, but the results are wonderful. It's simple too, an asset during the holiday rush.

Crumb Pie

Beat 3 egg whites with ¼ tsp cream of tartar until stiff. Add 1 cup sugar gradually. Mash 1 cup crackers crumbs (not too fine). Add to egg and sugar mixture. Add 1 cup pecans to this. Pour into pie pan greased with butter. Bake 30 minutes at 325 degrees. Serve with whipped cream.

Another delicacy most appropriate for the season when many callers drop by and open houses are in full swing is Kaye Rutledge's.

Pecan Melt-Aways

1 C pecans
½ C butter
2 tbsps sugar
1 C cake flour
1 tsp. vanilla extract

Chop nuts very fine, mix with flour. Cream butter until soft, add sugar and vanilla then add nuts and flour. Blend until mixture holds together firmly. Form into small balls and place on baking sheet and flatten slightly. Bake in 400 degree oven for 12-15 minutes. Roll in powdered sugar immediately on removing from oven. Roll again in powdered sugar and place on rack to cool.

What could be more appropriate for holiday cooks than Sue Ellen Smith's timely recipe for a symbol of Christmas?

Christmas Trees

½ C butter
25 large marshmallows
1 box crisp rice cereal (6 oz.) or puffed rice cereal (6-8 oz.) or ½ box of each. Tiny multicolored candies, cinnamon drops or colored sugar. Confectioners' sugar (optional)

Melt butter and marshmallows in top of double boiler over hot water. Pour over cereal. Cool slightly. Then shape into 5" trees, covering with waxed paper during shaping. Roll in candies. Sprinkle with confectioners' sugar, if desired. Makes about 8 trees.

An ideal dessert for the busy hostess is offered by Mrs. William H. Roedy, the JANGO chairman at Redstone.

Frozen Rum Raisin Custard (for 12)

1 C seedless raisins
1¼ C dark rum
2 C heavy cream
½ C chopped pecans
1 C macaroon or cake crumbs
1½ qts. French vanilla ice cream.

Soak raisins in rum for 1 hour or more. Whip cream and fold in pecans, raisins, rum and macaroon crumbs. Gradually stir mixture into ice cream, which has been allowed to soften. Place mixture in 12 cup mold in freezer until serving time. Remove from mold to serving plate and slice.

The following recipes came from the JANGO cookbook, "The Mess Kit."

Danish Tomatoes

Slice tomatoes. Add dash brown sugar—a layer of tomatoes and a layer of brown sugar.

Add vinegar, salt and pepper to taste. Marinate in refrigerator two or more hours before serving.

Students at Butler often are from families stationed at the Arsenal.

Wives Club Has Christmas Lunch At Mess

Mrs. Zierdt Gives Tea For More Than 130 Guests

More than 130 guests called during the afternoon last Thursday when Mrs. John G. Zierdt entertained with a Christmas tea in her home, 1 Wadsworth Drive, Redstone Arsenal.

Two evergreen trees on each side of the lawn were decorated with Christmas lights. An arrangement of greenery and red velvet roses was at the entrance. Red roses were used in the living room and were included in the tea table centerpiece which also featured a miniature, green Christmas tree adorned with red satin balls. The lighted Christmas tree in the living room was surrounded at the base with a colorful embroidered velvet cover.

Mrs. Arthur J. Matthews, Mrs. Safron S. Canja and Mrs. Terry M. Carlton assisted the hostess. Those presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Thomas W. Cooke, Mrs. Rawlins M. Colquitt, Jr. Mrs. Glenn

Marshall Wives Responsible

Lunch sponsored by the Redstone Arsenal Officers Wives Club last week featured Christmas carols and spirituals by the Butler High School A Cappella Chorus against a background of Christmas decorations.

In charge of the luncheon arrangements were wives of officers stationed at the Marshall Space Flight Center. Mrs. Edmund O'Connor was the chairman. Her committees included: Mrs. John Thompson, decorations; Mrs. W. F. LaHatte, menu; Mrs. W. H. Loomis, Mrs. E. E. Stenbridge, Mrs. William Teir, Mrs. W. C. Brame and Mrs. Samuel Yarchin.

The ballroom of the Redstone Officers Open Mess was filled with Christmas trees of red nylon net on white table cloths. The napkins were red and streamers of green ran the length of the tables which were staggered to give everybody a view of the chorus.

A candelabra was hung in the center of the room, lighted by red tapers. Red wall hangings were decorated with gold, pine cone trees, and in an alcove golden angles floated against a garland of pine boughs. In the center of the alcove was a seven foot red net tree that matched the table centerpieces. The punch table was animated with a fishbowl winter scene.

The stage held two oversize silvery candles with real trees flanking the sides.

Approximately 300 members and guests attended the lunch.

The members voted to change the constitution. Mrs. C. D. Sterner, president, presided over the business meeting.

Crane, Mrs. E. I. Donley, Mrs. I. O. Drewry, Mrs. Erwin M. Graham, Jr., Mrs. Bernard R. Luczak, Mrs. Edward D. Mohlere, Mrs. Reuben W. Mundy, Mrs. Harry M. Murray and Mrs. Cyril D. Sterner.

Six-Shooters Shoot Way Into Redstone Loop Lead

PARADE OF STARS

Field Services League: Sam Boda, 582 (226), Theron Sumner, 542, Cliff Walker, 540 (222), Ed Murrah, 538, Mike Shuput, 533, Bob Adams, 532.

AMC League: Tom Patterson, 572, Don Ellerbe, 550, Ernie Danes, 548 (213), Howard Helmick, 546, Don Cornelius, 537, Woody Rush, 536 (224), Joe Leary, 536.

Supply Management League: Mel Tack, 611 (225-215), Fred Stewart, 591 (215-206), Ed Lawson, 589 (231), Nick Sparks, 587 (200-200), Jack Bailey, 580, John Weaver, 569 (210), Bob Hollman, 564, Art Calsoni, 558, Tom Patterson, 557, Chuck Henricks, 554, Tom Lindsey, 533, Roy Parmalee, 548.

Redstone League: Joe Calamusa, 631 (234-215), Clem Gould, 592 (215), Jim Gulley, 576, Marty Schmitz, 554, Ed Murrah, 553, Joe Denk, 549 (214), Oliver Patrick, 548, Joe Norris, 556, Walt Jackson, 544.

Bent on improving their second place finish a year ago, the Six-Shooters have started to make their move in the Redstone League. And they don't seem to be content with just heading the league standings either.

After trailing the front running Valley Cleaners for a few weeks, the Shooters jumped all over Dean's Trailer Court last week to post the highest team total of the season in winning all four of the points.

The Cleaners were relegated to runner up status when they were held to a split with the Pin Palace.

Joe Calamusa was the fastest draw for the new leaders when his second Honor Roll count of the season, a 631. The middle man in the Six Shooter attack had games of 234 and 215 as the team had games of 1048 and 1045 and a three game total of 3080.

Calamusa had plenty of help and each of his team mates passed the 500 mark. Ed Murrah had a 553, Walt Jackson, a 544, Jim Stewart collected 532 sticks and Jack Ward fired a 523.

The Standard Oils got four 500s, led by Jim Gulley's 576, but it was not enough, and the Oilers dropped three out of four to the Photo Lab. Clem Gould led the Lab men with a 592 and Oliver Patrick chipped in with 548.

The Ramblers were almost as tough on the Skippers in an AMC League match. They got four 500s and a 3024 total for a three to one margin. Tom Patterson tossed a 572 and Don Ellerbe came in with a 550.

Ernie Danes had a 548 and Howard Melmick turned in a 546 to keep the Ramblers from making it a sweep.

The league-leading Bombers came a cropper after several sweeps of their own and dropped all four to the Thunderbirds to tighten the race a little. Two other clean sweep winner: were the Maulers over the Panthers, and the Tow Boys at the expense of the Alley Cats.

The AMC league will be off for two weeks and then hit a position night the first week back. The Bombers will try to right there express against the Maulers while the Tow Boys and the Ramblers will go at one another for a chance to move up on the lead.

The only other Honor Roll count of the week was turned in by Mel Tack in the Supply Management League. After suffering through several near misses, Tack put together games of 215, 225 and 171 for a 611 total.

A pair of Marauder team mates almost made the grade as Fred Stewart ended with a 591 and Ed Lawson completed the evening with two pins less. A strong finish would have put both in the Honor Roll category as Stewart had a pair of 200s and Lawson hit a 231 in the middle.

Their efforts boosted the Marauders to a 1069 game and a 3024 series, not to mention a clean sweep over Lily Flag.

The league leading Brick and Tile team continued along their merry way turning in a 3040 total (2714 scratch) in taking three points from the Mustangs. The leaders tossed a 1088 (973) in the middle.

Jack Bailey led the Tilemen with a 580, John Weaver contributed a 569 and Tom Lindsay collected 553 maples.

Another outstanding effort was turned in by the All-Sports in a 3 to 1 win over Bramblets. They put four of their bowlers in the 500 class with Bob Hollman setting the pace with 564. The win gave the All-Sports sole possession of second place, six and a half points behind the Tilemen.

When it comes to turning in tough splits, Howard Lee of the Jones Lumber team has the system. His latest was the four-six.

The Crackers had a monopoly on individual scoring in the Field Services League with three of the top six individual totals, while the Chiefs turned in the best team effort.

The outburst gave the Crackers a clean sweep over Central TV as the Chiefs were taking three points from the Spoilers. The Crackers now lead the Chiefs by two and a half.

Sam Boda was the Cracker leader when he turned in a 582 total and a 226 game. Both were weekly highs for the league. Theron Sumner added a 542 and Ed Murrah hit for 538 to help the Cracker cause.

Cliff Walker was the Chief's chief with a 540 and a 222. The latter came in a 1064 middle game.

Black Jacks Threaten To Overhaul Rollers

Last week at this time the Rocket Rollers had what appeared to be an insurmountable lead in the OGMS Officers bowling league. But apparently the Black Jacks were something less than impressed and right now a change in leadership is a distinct possibility as soon as the league gets back to action.

A break in the schedule makes the change a strong possibility since it pits the two combatants against one another in two straight league sessions.

The Black Jacks made the most of the first match last week by handing the leaders a clean sweep loss. The lead which had reached six and a half points was thus reduced to two and a half.

George Earle was the chief instigator of the Roller downfall when he rolled a 583 total, the best that has been bowled this season. Earle also had a 224 game and the Jacks got together for a 2721 total pinfall.

The second high individual total was rolled in a losing cause as Bill Moeller put together a 553 for the Missilemen. However, it was to little avail as F Troop took three of the four points. Gary Starkey had 504 for the winners.

Bob Percy and Al Leonard rolled 527 and 526 respectively to lead the Rounders to a 3 to 1 win over the Squirrel Hill Mob and the Satellites won three from the Bad Gnus in other matches.

Summer Employment Tests Scheduled Nationwide

Summer employment for qualified undergraduate college students at Redstone Arsenal and other Federal installations will be available this year as the result of a recent announcement by the U. S. Civil Service Commission.

Under the recently adopted program, the students will be offered employment at the installation of their choice on the basis of a qualifying test to be administered nationwide on Feb. 5. The test will be conducted in a number of area locations, including Huntsville.

In announcing the test, the Commission indicated that the test will be limited to undergraduate students, primarily those graduating from high school this year and those college students through the junior year.

Graduate students and faculty members are considered in a different category for Federal employment and are not eligible to compete. The regular summer employment program under which these people are employed, will remain in effect as in previous summers.

The new program was established by the Commission because of the large number of capable persons available for summer jobs.

Suggestions Ease Christmas Buying

Christmas shopping was a little easier on eleven Department of Army civilian employees who have recently received cash grants in recognition of their suggestions for improved operations.

The cash awards, totalling $255, were approved at the November meeting of the Suggestion and Awards committee. At the same time letters of appreciation were approved for seven other employees for their efforts in the awards program.

The largest individual cash award went to Sidney White, a microphotography leader in the Procurement and Production Directorate. White received $50.

He proposed the reproduction of sufficient copies of repair parts and major item breakout lists so as to eliminate additional reproduction by the District and Regional Offices.

A $45 cash award was voted to Emmett Pearson, a procurement analyst in the Hawk Project Office, for a suggestion of an improved procedure that will result in tangible savings of over $800.

Another improved procedure resulted in a $25 award for Mortimer Barnett, a program specialist in the Air Defense Fire Distribution Systems Office.

Geneva Cole, of the Provost Marshal Division, and Jackie Vogt, of the Metrology Center, each received cash grants of $20, while Giles Collier and William Hill, both of the Metrology Center, shared a like award.

Vogt also was the recipient of a $15 award as were, Edgar Verchot and Joseph Ingegnari, both of Research and Development; Mark Hunter, of the Finance and Accounting Center; and John McSparrin, of the Metrology Center.

Letters of Appreciation were awarded to Walter Williamson and Nellie Barnard, both of Supply and Maintenance; William Donehoo, Hawk Project Office; William Faust, Procurement & Production; Cheryl Holmes, Research & Development; Clayton Hall, Post Engineer; and Jim Tipton, Provost Marshal.

The test will allow all interested students an equal opportunity to compete, and place the hiring on a merit basis.

A considerable variety of jobs will be filled from the examination under the general classification of Office and Science Assistant. The jobs will range in grade from GS-1 ($282 per month) to GS-4 ($373 per month) depending upon the duties and requirements of the position.

Included in the job specialties to be filled are, typist, clerk, stenographer, office machine operator, student assistant-engineering, physical science, biological, and mathematical aid.

Students wishing to apply for the test may do so by filing Card Form 5000-AB with the U.S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D.C., 20415. The deadline date for submitting application for the test is Jan. 3, 1966.

When filling out the card form, available from any post office or OSE office, the student should list the city, state and code number to identify the place where he wishes to take the test.

Notification of the test results will be made in sufficient time to permit those passing to submit application for employment forms to the agency with whom they wish to be employed.

Shillelagh Managers Meet Here

Missilemen who are developing the Army's Shillelagh anti-tank missile system began a two-day meeting Thursday morning, at the U.S. Army Missile Command.

Representatives from Aeronutronic Division of Philco Corporation, the system prime contractor, and the Army met in a Bi-Monthly Management Review to discuss, among other things, program continuity and integration of all technical requirements.

Heading the contingent of contractors was N. Mastracola, program manager for Shillelagh at Aeronutronic and William Sydnor of Raytheon, one of the system's major sub-contractors. Lt. Col. Spencer R. Baen is Shillelagh Project Manager and directs the program from headquarters at Redstone Arsenal, Ala.

A direct fire missile which is launched from a combination gun-launcher, Shillelagh will be effective not only against tanks but troops and field fortifications as well. It can fire either missiles or conventional ammunition and is highly accurate against either stationary or moving targets.

The Shillelagh system is to be mounted on a variety of combat vehicles.

Mrs. Underwood To Begin Career In Enjoyable Living

Maggie Mae Underwood is on the brink of a new career, and she is retiring so that she can pursue it.

Mrs. Underwood is a secretary in the Electrical Design Branch in the Ground Support Equipment Laboratory of the Research and Development Directorate. She has been there since 1962. Her career in the business world spans almost 39 years—23 of them with a cotton seed oil company in Huntsville and five of them with the Henderson National Bank. The rest of the time has been at Redstone Arsenal.

Business has been only a fraction of her interest. She and her husband, Percy, reared a daughter, Flo, who is now Mrs. B. A. Stockton, Jr. of Huntsville.

Mrs. Underwood has also been active in the First Methodist Sunday School, the Church, and the WMSC. She has been a member of the same Sunday School class 47 years—43 of them with the same teacher.

Steve, as she is known to her co-workers and friends, hasn't confined her interests to the Huntsville area. She has travelled extensively on the North American continent and has visited every one of the United States except Minnesota and North Dakota. She plans to remedy that during the Summer.

After her husband died, she took trips on busses, usually with a tour, crossing the border into Canada from the East and from the West.

Mrs. Underwood also maintained membership in the Eastern Star and has held almost every office in the local chapter.

She began working at Redstone the first time in 1942, but did not stay long. She came back in 1954 in the Purchasing and Contracting Office, remained there a year and then joined the Public Information Office Staff. Later, when long hours of overtime were necessary, Steve transferred to the Army Ballistic Missile Agency because she felt she had reached an age where overtime was too much of a drain on her energy, even if she dropped her obligations to the Business and Professional Womens Club and other organizations.

Meantime, she added two apartments to her house and became a landlady.

Only a few months of the year does her yard lack the sparkle of blossoming flowers, and her ferns are stored on the porch during the winter to be set out in the Spring. With the time to spend in the future, she plans to concentrate on roses.

On very special occasions, Steve would bake a fresh coconut cake for the office staff where she worked.

Before she moved into the Research and Development Directorate, Mrs. Underwood worked in the Field Maintenance Division of the Army Missile Support Command.

Steve hasn't confined her trips to long ones. She visits in such places as St. Petersburg, Fla., where she has a niece, and in Tennessee where she was born and reared at Elkton along with three brothers and a sister. Often after church on Sunday, she will hop in her car and take off for places like Scottsboro for dinner, taking along whichever of her friends who wish to go. That practice has been curtailed since Huntsville has blossomed with many fine restaurants and it is easier to get to them.

Now with retirement, she plans to rejoin her garden club; travel some more and revisit some places; get better acquainted with her grandchildren, Ben, 11 and Carl, 8; and sit and rock when she feels like it. She wants to enjoy herself before she gets too old. Her 70th birthday is less than three years away.

months until being accepted for employment with the Railway Mail Service of the Post Office Department.

He left the service in 1929 and spent seven years in sales work in Atlanta and Birmingham. In 1936 he returned to the Federal service by accepting a position with the Soil Conservation Service of the Department of Agriculture.

Sam was transferred to the Bureau of Animal Industry in 1947 and remained with the agency until coming to Redstone.

At the present time he is on the "best job I ever had," as Chief of the Support Command's Space Utilization Office for the Assistant for Logistics.

Mathis said he has no plans at this time for retirement, and then added, "I'll leave when they tell me I can't work any longer." That day could be quite a while in the future since the veteran employee has been granted Outstanding Performance Awards each of the last four years.

Married to a Huntsville girl, the former Miss Mildred Johnson, Mathis is looking forward now to his Silver Wedding anniversary next July. Mrs. Mathis is employed in the Military Assistance Program office of the Supply and Maintenance Directorate.

They are parents of a daughter and a son. The daughter is at the University of Alabama on a teaching fellowship while she completes her work for a Master's Degree, and the son will graduate from Florence State College next year. Fanning is a native Huntsvillian.

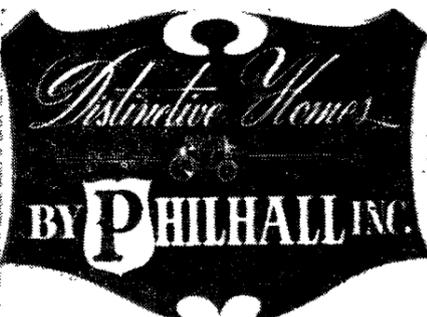

He started his Redstone employment in 1942 after having worked for the Tennessee Valley Authority for seven years.

Except for a tour of duty with the American occupation forces in Germany following World War II and a short period at the Anniston Army Depot, he has been a member of the Redstone Fire Department since.

At the present time Fanning is a station captain.

Like Mathis, he hasn't given too much thought to retiring and will "probably be around for a few more years." But he adds, "I rather take them a year at a time."
