TORNADO HITS ARSENAL

RECOGNIZE THIS PICTURE?—A pile of rubble is all that remains of three buildings on Redstone Arsenal which caught the brunt of the tornado early Monday morning. Shown here are portions of Buildings 7411, 7412 and 7402, which were completely destroyed. These buildings were located on Warehouse Road which was hardest hit by the pre-dawn twister.

Wind Fells Buildings, Power Lines

Redstone Arsenal officials are still assessing damage resulting from Monday's tornado which claimed at least two lives, injured scores and damaged the homes of hundreds in Madison and other North Alabama Counties.

No value has been set as yet on property loss on the Arsenal but it is expected to be substantial.

No one was injured during the tornado on the Arsenal.

Severest blows of the twister which struck before 4 a.m. were dealt on the southern portion of Redstone, following a pattern similar to those of the wind storm which resulted in considerable property damage on the Arsenal last May.

Three metal warehouse-type buildings dating back to World War II construction, were leveled off Warehouse Road. They were Buildings 7402, 7411 and 7412. Damaged beyond use in this area, were Buildings 7403 and 7404. All were used for storage, one was assigned to Property Disposal and four to Thiokol Corp.

One trailer was overturned and crushed near the Test and Reliability Evaluation Laboratory as the tornado touched down near Test Area 5. Several power poles leading into the area were blown down, completely blocking the road. Test officials said "it might be several days before power to the test ranges could be restored."

Although relatively little damage to other test facilities was noted, trees throughout a broad area were snapped like matchsticks or else uprooted and scattered over an area of several hundred yards.

Several Army buildings occupied by Rohm & Haas, Redstone Research Laboratories, south of Redstone Road were in the path of (See TORNADO on Page 3)

Finance Schedules Pay Raise Checks Okayed For Civilians, Military

All retroactive difference checks for Redstone civilian employees will be mailed next week, according to LTC M. A. Jones, the Missile Command Finance and Accounting Officer.

Col. Jones added that military personnel are being paid for December under the new scale and the checks that they receive on December 29 will include the retroactive difference for the months of October and November.

Both military personnel and Federal classified workers were granted pay increases in separate bills signed by President Johnson last week. The pay raises were made retroactive to the first full pay period starting on or after Oct. 1. In announcing a schedule for revising the civilian pay scale, Col. Jones said that the raises would be effected before the retroactive differences are computed.

Therefore the revised scale will be used in computing the bi-weekly pay checks for the pay periods ending Dec. 16 and 23. These checks will be mailed on Dec. 26 and Jan. 2, respectively.

The retroactive checks will be separate and will be mailed between Wednesday and Friday of next week according to the Finance and Accounting Officer.

For approximately half of the affected personnel the check will include the difference covering five pay periods from Oct. 1 through Dec. 9. All others are entitled to a retroactive difference covering four pay periods, extending from Oct. 8 through Dec. 2

"Peace On Earth, Good Will Toward Men"

Deep down in our hearts we wish that there could be universal peace this Christmas season, and forever. But peace without honor and respect for the rights and the good will of individuals, and the recognition that nations should govern themselves according to the voice of their people, is not true peace.

Those who would advocate this nation giving up our determination to assist the less fortunate who desire such freedom are asking us to fly false colors contrary to our own national objectives and to our own great heritage.

We can truly be proud of our men in Vietnam and in other foreign lands who are helping to insure true peace on earth and good will toward all men. The fact that this world can pause in war for a day in recognition of man's belief in a Power greater than his own gives us hope and strength in our resolve for true peace.

Each member of the Redstone family has my sincere wishes for a joyous Christmas Season and a Happy New Year.

Chaplain's Staff Prepares For Christmas Services

A Christmas concert will be presented by the Protestant choirs at the Redstone Arsenal Post Chapel Sunday evening, beginning at 7 p.m.

The Chapel has four choirs: the Adult and Junior Choirs are directed by Mrs. Robert G. Ficke; the Cherub Choir is directed by Mrs. Morris Pettit; and the Chapel Choir is directed by PFC Byron Groszmann.

Miss Eunice McIntyre will be organist and Mrs. Verle Hammond the pianist for the concert. Miss McIntyre will play "Christmas Pipes," an organ solo.

Vocal solos will be sung by Mrs. Hammond, soprano, and Mrs. John P. Kirkland, Jr. The solos scheduled are "Come Unto Me" and "Ave Maria."

On Christmas Eve Chaplain (Maj.) John C. Zwiers will hold a candlelight service at 7 p.m. followed by a Communion Service at 8 p.m.

The Catholic Chaplain, Maj. Joseph V. Coshan, has scheduled adult confessions at 5:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday. No confessions will be heard Sunday or Christmas Day except at the Redstone Park Mass. Sunday morning Mass at the Main Post Chapel is scheduled at 7:30 and 8:45 a.m., at 12:45 and 5 p.m. Mass in the Chapel Annex, Bldg. T-3151 will be at 11:30 a.m. Concelebrated Midnight Mass at the Main Post Chapel will be preceded by Christmas Music sung by the choir. They are scheduled to begin at 11:30 p.m. Mass will be celebrated at 11:30 a.m. on Sunday and Christmas Day at the Redstone Park Chapel.

Tonight the Protestant Youth Group will meet for Christmas (See CHAPEL on Page 3)

REHEARSAL—The Chaplain's staff at the Post Chapel prepare for the Christmas Eve candlelight service at 7 p.m. A Communion service will follow at 8 p.m.

Best Wishes For Christmas

Christmas is a family celebration and to each of you in the AMC family I extend best wishes for a joyous Christmas.

Our role in AMC is to support the American soldier for whom Christmas has always had a special meaning as he has endeavored to bring "Peace on Earth." His well-being and effectiveness are the concern of us all, since he looks to us for the material with which to sustain his efforts. By daily fulfilling our tasks here at home, we offer tangible proof of our mutual dedication to the accomplishment of his dangerous and vital mission.

You have earned the gratitude of your fellow Americans for your extra efforts this year. In the solid satisfaction of a job well done, may your Christmas be happy and the new year a safe and rewarding one for you and your families.

Col. Holston Directs Missile Intelligence

Col. Alfred Holston has been named Director of Missile Intelligence at the Army Missile Command after completing a tour in the Pentagon in the Office, Deputy Chief of Staff for Military Operations.

In his Washington assignment, he was Chief, Defensive Forces Branch, Strategic Forces Division, Strategic Plans and Policy Directorate.

He entered the Army in 1943, returned to civilian life in 1946, and was recalled to active duty during the Korean Conflict.

This is Col. Holston's second duty tour at Redstone. From 1961 until 1965 he was assigned in the Nike-X Office here. Some of his former assignments were Seoul, Korea; Sandia Base, New Mexico, and Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas.

The colonel was originally from Akron, Ala., and is a graduate of the University of Alabama with a Bachelor of Science degree in Chemical Engineering. He later earned a Master of Science degree in Bioradiology from the University of California, Berkeley.

His hobbies include woodwork, fishing and golf. He is a member of Pi Kappa Phi fraternity.

Col. and Mrs. Holston have three daughters, Kay, wife of Lt. Ralph Smith at the Missile and Munitions Center and School; Ann, 16; and Susan, 12. Mrs. Holston is the former Miss Eulalia Reynolds, daughter of Mrs. W. S. Reynolds, Troy, Ala. Col. Holston's mother, Mrs. R. J. Holston, resides at 917 13th Street, Tuscaloosa.

The Holstons have moved into quarters at 37 Ripley Drive, Redstone Arsenal.

ZERO DEFECTS CORNER

it's up to you!

An Arsenal bus driver for over 16 years has been named the Missile Command's Zero Defects Employee of the Month for December.

Richard Martin was cited for the award in recognition of his perfect safe driving record during his period of employment, together with a steady flow of compliments from the children, their parents, and school officials alike.

Assigned the responsibility for transporting dependent children to school in Huntsville and return, Martin has accumulated approximately 300,000 miles without being involved in a single accident of any kind.

His keen personal interest in every child entrusted to his care has been a source of great credit for himself and an inspiration to his fellow employees to accomplish their assignments in an outstanding manner.

A native of New Hope, Martin is the father of a son and a daughter, now married. He is an active member and musical director of the Mt. Zion Baptist Church in the New Hope community.

the tornado. Principal damage was to roofs and according to a Rohm & Haas spokesman, three buildings are considered to have sustained serious damage, seven others less extensive damage. One small building was demolished.

The spokesman said no key operations of Rohm & Haas at Redstone were crippled because of the storm. An estimate of return to

He Nearly Was

One night watchman narrowly missed being an eyewitness to the twister.

Clyde Owens, with Southern Security Services who is a guard with Thiokol, had just finished an inspection tour of the 7400 area buildings.

"I had just left those to return to the Thiokol Visitors Control Center," Owens said. "I hadn't been gone more than 10 minutes."

"I heard this tremendous roar about 3:40 a.m. . . it was so dark at the time I couldn't tell what was happening. But when I got back to the area about 4:30, I saw this!" he pointed to the pile of rubble.

"I'm just glad I wasn't here to see it," he laughed.

full operation could not be made until full power was restored.

Rohm & Haas does rocket propellant research for the Army and employs approximately 285 persons at Redstone.

The winds also ripped the fabric covering of the 100-foot tall air inflated dome used to house missile exhibits in the Army Missile Display Area just off Patton Road on the northern boundary of the Arsenal. The large dome settled down on its supporting structure and there was little apparent water damage to the displays inside.

A smaller dome was ripped by strong winds in October and exhibits had been concentrated in the larger structure.

No damage was reported to buildings of the Marshall Space Flight Center.

Fallen power poles and lines, trees and limbs dotted the wind swept landscape from Patton Road east to the Arsenal boundary.

Power poles across Redstone Road between Gate No. 3 and South Memorial Parkway necessitated an early morning closing of Gate No. 3. Gate No. 2 was open only to traffic proceeding west on Buxton as far as Patton. Rising waters of McDonald Creek on Hanson Road forced the closing of Gate No. 5 at Triana Blvd.

Gate No. 7 on Martin Rd., leading to the new Carl T. Jones Field, was closed Monday about mid-morning because of swollen Indian Creek.

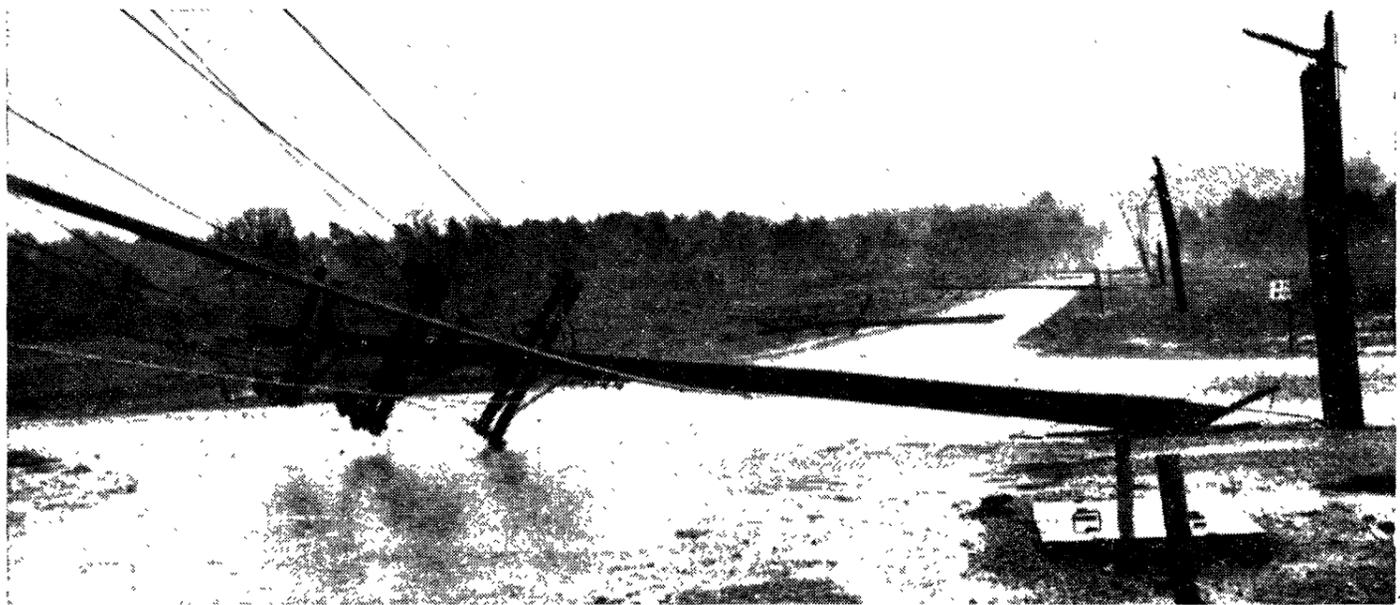

Electrical service disruptions were reported over a wide area but Post Engineer repair crews who worked before daylight and during heavy rains Monday, are restoring service as quickly as possible.

IN THE WAKE—Twisted chunks of metal and piles of debris . . . fallen power lines lying grotesquely across well travelled highways . . . full-grown trees snapped like matchsticks and hurled across an area of several hundred yards . . . a trailer overturned and crushed like an accordion. These signs of devastation offer mute evidence of the violence of the tornado which swept across Redstone Arsenal early Monday morning. There was one bright spot in the storm's aftermath, however. Despite untold damages to property and facilities, not a single person reportedly was injured by the twister on Redstone Arsenal property.

Redstone was never without outside communication but off-arsenal telephone calls were difficult to complete for a few hours Monday.

Morning peak traffic hours were marked by a steady stream of Arsenal employees proceeding to their work more slowly than usual because of closed roads both on and off the arsenal. However, by mid-afternoon all gates were open except Gate No. 3 and traffic was proceeding about as usual during peak afternoon hours.

While directing massive repair and cleanup operations in the aftermath of the tornado, Arsenal officials also offered all possible assistance to surrounding communities.

The Army furnished trucks and drivers from the 522nd Ordnance Company attached to the Army Missile and Munitions Center and School to assist Civil Defense authorities in rescue and relief operations within Huntsville.

University Singers Entertain At Luncheon

The Redstone Arsenal Officers Wives Club held a Christmas Luncheon at the Officers Open Mess last week.

Among the guests introduced by the president, Mrs. Stephen Gray, was the wife of the Mayor of the City of Huntsville, Mrs. Glenn Hearn.

Approximately 200 attended the luncheon including Brig. Gen. Clarence C. Harvey, Jr., Deputy Commanding General, Air Defense Systems, his aide, Lt. Timothy Radigan, and Chaplain (Maj.) Jon M. Lindenauer.

The ballroom was decorated for the season with banners depicting the twelve days of Christmas. The lunch tables were festooned with garlands of greenery tied with red ribbon and garnished with frosted pine cones. In the center of each table and on the punch table stood gay green Christmas trees with white balls. The pedestals were red.

Mrs. W. J. Macpherson was chairman for the lunch. Her committees included Mrs. Robert Ash, Jr., decorations, and Mrs. Eugene Krembs, sherry; pouring were Mrs. Andrew Garrabrant, Mrs. Robert Allen, Jr., Mrs. William Johansson, Mrs. James Stimach, Mrs. M. U. Fiel, and Mrs. Krembs. Mrs. Johansson and Mrs. Allen also VILLAGE SINGERS—A portion of the University of Alabama in Huntsville's choir known as the Huntsville Village Singers, presented a program of Christmas music during the December luncheon of the Redstone Arsenal Officers Wives Club Tuesday (Dec. 12). Lunch was served in the Ballroom of the Redstone Officers Open Mess to approximately 200 members and guests.

EXCHANGE OF GAVEL—Mrs. Stephen E. Gray (left) hands the gavel she has wielded as the Redstone Officers Wives Club president to Mrs. Arthur G. Lange Jr. Mrs. Gray resigned because her husband has received a new assignment. Other changes: Mrs. John Henderson will fill the first vice president's chair formerly occupied by Mrs. Lange; Mrs. Horace B. Dunn, Jr., will become vice president; and Mrs. John Kirkland will head the ways and means committee.

Garden Club Grants Door Decoration Prizes On Post

The Garden Club activity of the Redstone Arsenal Officers Wives Club has selected the outstanding decorations on front doors throughout the three categories of quarters areas on the Arsenal.

Col. and Mrs. Morris W. Pettit, 21 Ripley Drive, received first in Area "A"; Col. and H. H. Northington, 10 Wadsworth Drive, second; and LTC and Mrs. J. M. Ivy, 44 Ripley, third place.

In Area "B", first went to Col. and Mrs. J. S. Churan, 453 Simpson Drive; second to Capt. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor, 368 Roberts Drive; and third to Maj. and Mrs. Therman Richards, 434 Hughes Drive. In this group, an honorable mention was given to LTC and Mrs. L. D. Pyle, 459 Simpson Drive.

The winners in Area "C" were Capt. and Mrs. Thurman Watts, 236-C Wesson Circle, first; 1st Lt. and Mrs. J. L. Stimach, 231-A Niblo Drive, second; and 1st Lt. and Mrs. W. R. Edwards, 209-B Dyer Circle, third.

The door decorations were judged according to their conformity to the Christmas spirit, ingenuity, scale and proportion, originality, and artistic effect.

CALENDARS—The Junior Army Navy Guild Organization (JANGO) calendars for 1968 have arrived at Redstone Arsenal, and Nancy Holmes, chairman of the JANGO calendar committee sells one to Mrs. Clarence C. Harvey, Jr., wife of the Deputy Commanding General, Air Defense Systems, of the Army Missile Command. Proceeds from the calendar sale go to the JANGO Scholarship Fund maintained by the JANGO Headquarters in Washington, D.C. Scholarships are awarded annually by the Senior JANGO Board to outstanding members from the participating guilds. Mrs. William C. McHugh is the JANGO sponsor at Redstone.

CHECK FOR CHARITY—Mrs. Stephen Gray, Mrs. Clarence C. Harvey, Jr., and General Harvey hold a $500 check destined for the Army Distaff Foundation's Fellowship Assistance Fund. The Foundation, a haven for widows and other female relatives of deceased Army officers, is a non-profit organization in Washington, D.C. The Fellowship Assistance Fund is maintained to help needy residents who live in the Army Distaff Foundation Hall. Funds were raised by the Officers Wives Club from the proceeds of the annual Harvest Ball. Mrs. Harvey was honorary chairman. Mrs. Gray is president of the Wives Club. Gen. Harvey, Deputy CG, Air Defense Systems, accepted the check to be forwarded to Washington.

Honor Graduates Abound At Missilemen Graduation

Academic excellence was the note of the day at the Missile and Munitions Center and School graduation Friday, as 17 men were cognized as honor students.

The graduation, last major event of the school calendar for 1967 (MCS closed Friday afternoon for a holiday period), featured one of the largest classes of the year. There were 161 graduates representing the U. S., Germany, Denmark and Japan.

Two Land Combat Support Missile classes—Systems Repair Technician, and Test Specialist—averaged 92.4 and 91.2, respectively, as a whole. The 22 men involved received part of their training at the SA factory in Burlington, Mass. Ten students, the highest number in a single group in several years, received special plaques from the Association of the U. S. Army for maintaining a scholastic average of 96 or better. J. L. Payne, AUSA representative of the Tennessee Valley Chapter, made 2 awards.

From the Nike radar and computer course, four German Air Force students were cited: Sgt. 1st class Guenter Hopke of Kilianedten, 98.4; Sgt. Peter Gutzmann of Pinneberg, 97.6; Sgt. 1st class Heinz Trombach of Jever, 96.3; and Master Sgt. Dieter Kolf Delmenhorst, 96.6. Cpl. Mogens Mose of Copenhagen, Denmark, averaged 96.7 in Hawk missile and nuclear repair.

From the Land Combat Support courses, SFC Howard R. Raymond Anselmo, Neb. (systems repair), 98.3; SFC Hayward E. Smith Picayune, Miss. (systems repair), 97.4; PFC Alfred E. Resnick of Ford City, Pa. (test specialist), 96.0; and PFC Dallas R. Miller of Maple Creek, Ohio (test specialist), 95.2 were honored. The other USA recipient was Pvt. William Harrison, Jr. of Bay City, Mich., 94.6 in ammunition records.

Also recognized as tops in their class were Marine Staff Sgt. David Cannon of Hampton, Va., 94.7, in air defense; PFC Seymour F. Adams of Cleveland, Ohio, 93.6, in radar and computer; PFC Le E. Craven of East Liverpool, Ohio, 94.4, Hawk pulse radar; and Air Force Cpl. Dennis R. Benson of Elroy, Wis., 88.6, Hawk electronics; Sgt. Ralph P. Molski of Berlin, Wis., 93.7, Pershing digital computer; Pvt. James M. Hudec, 95.0, guidance missile repair; and Pvt. Thomas D. Martens of Davenport, Ia., 93.0, ammunition renovation.

The guest speaker at the ceremony, Capt. James E. Kennedy, commanding officer of the 3rd Battalion at MMCS, spoke to the graduates on the difficulty and importance of performing their trades well. The skills taught at MMCS, noted Kennedy, are those of maintenance and support, military roles that involve little glamour or recognition, but a great deal of work.

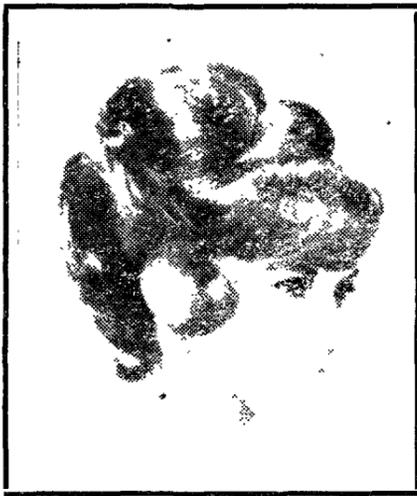

"The recognition and glory may be little, but you are truly the man behind the scenes," noted Captain Kennedy, who pointed out that the man on the front lines can do nothing without ammunition.

ICO Defeats DPO In Cage Opener

About the only sure thing that can be said about the Civilian Welfare Fund basketball league at this time is that there will be a new champion.

It is quite possible that many of the same players will be performing for the new champion, but if that be the case a couple months from now, they will be carrying a different banner this time around.

Most of the Documentation team of last season are now together as the ICO team and they opened the new season with a 63-53 win over Data Processing last Thursday.

Two low scoring affairs completed the opening triple header played at the Dallas Street Armory. The Industrial Engineers took the Supply and Maintenance Directorate, 26-20, and the Metrology Lab rallied to shade the SAM-D Project Office, 30-27.

Greg Bogue, the league's top scorer for the last two years, was up to his old tricks in the opener when he fired 32 points through the nets in pacing ICO to their win.

The team from the Procurement and Production Directorate took an early lead and led by 12 at the end of the third period. DPO rallied in the final quarter and pulled to within three points of the lead but was unable to make up the deficit.

Jim Bunnell tossed in an even dozen for the winners while Jim Stover topped the Processors with 20 and Hunter Horton added 10 more.

The middle game brought together a pair of teams that were ice cold in their shooting, and neither was able to mount any kind of a drive.

The Engineers got the upper hand midway in the final period and held on for the win with Jim Dickerson and Ed Hendrichs sharing scoring honors with seven points apiece. Bill Lasewicz tallied eight for the losers.

Metrology Lab accounted for almost half of their total output in the final period to overcome a 10-point Sam-D lead for their win. The Missilemen led 26-16 going into the final quarter and appeared well on their way to victory.

But Ted Findley and Lee Orville had other ideas. Findley took complete charge of the backboards and Orville did the shooting as the Labmen had a 14-1 advantage to win the game.

Orville took scoring honors with 16 points and Findley added 9 more. Comer Jacobs paced SAM-D with 13.

Pin Busters Fight Off All Challenges For Lead

About the best thing that can be said of any athletic team is that, "They get what they need." And the reference is equally applicable to any sport and whether it is runs that are needed or touchdowns, baskets, pins or any other method of scoring.

When it comes to knocking down the maple ten-pins, one outfit that believes in taking their opposition as they come are the Pin Busters, pace setters in the strong Supply Management League.

The Charles McCleery-led Busters are quite capable of stacking the lumber at record pace (they had a 3106 total earlier), or they can win with a very average performance.

Last week the pace was slow and the Busters responded with one of their lowest total pinfalls of the season but still took three out of four from the Building Supply. Howard Helmick was the leading pin buster with a 548 count.

Kenny Bell took individual honors for the week while the Lily Flagg Auto Clinic proved to be the most prolific team in scoring.

Bell closed his second Honor Roll count of the season with a 222 as he led the Ramblers to their fifth straight 3 to 1 win, this time over the All-Sports Trophies. He totaled 604 while Chet Wysocki had 580 and Quentin Owen tossed a 545 for the Trophymen, who almost gained a split with 1080 in the final game.

The Lily Flagg five presented a strong three-man front in bombing the Shoot 'n Scoots with a 1055 game and a 2971 total. Joe Williams was high with 575, a pin more than Lee Hollenback and five more than Ed Gilgenast.

Tom Lindsay fared a 588 as Huntsville Brick and Tile took three from Auto Center and the Bushwackers won a trio from the Strike Outs despite a 567 rolled in the losing cause by Bob Oliver.

Thew Proves Real Gem On First Try

There's nothing like starting at the top and that is exactly what Ken Thew had in mind as he made his debut in the Redstone Bowling league last week.

Signed up recently to bowl with the Zale Jewelers, Thew broke in with a 603 count to take over the lead in the league's individual average race.

The Jewelers followed the lead of their new found gem to a three to one win over Standard Oil. Bob Adams chipped in with a 546 while Jack Weston topped the Oilers with 553.

The league leading Facts held onto a three-point bulge by winning a trio from the Control Office while the runner-up Gibson five was taking all four from the Hawks. The second placers got a 568 from Don Bacchus in shooting a 1082 game and a 3026 series. Jim Deschler paced the leaders with 555.

Karl Worley turned in a 584 and Ray Profitt added 540 more as Dean's Trailer Park swept the Super Hawks to strengthen their hold on third.

Valley Cleaners won three from Alabama Commission despite a 564 turned in by Wayne May, the Credit Union won three from Wright's 66. Burketts had the same advantage over the Holcomb Agency and the Pin Palace won three out of four from Hornsby Masonry.

AMC Rivals Duel In Crucial Match

The day of reckoning is about at hand for a pair of rivals that have been almost unbeatable for the past several weeks of action in the AMC Bowling League.

The Voyagers with a one-point lead over the All-Sports Trophies, will try to add their rivals to the list of also-rans when the two get together after a two-week holiday layoff in a head-to-head duel.

Both of the front-runners scored sweeps last week in prepping for their second match of the season. The Voyagers took the wind out of the Bombers' sails while the Trophymen were winning everything from the Travelers.

Three more sweeps were recorded in the league with the Stars whipping the Rejectors, the Raiders blanking the Alley Cats and the T-Birds gaining a tie for third by downing the Lancers. The Tigers snapped out of a slump to take three out of four from the Avengers and the Packers won three from the Wonnors.

Tom Smith was the top gunner for the Voyagers with a 589. Floyd Clark added a 548 total while Jerry Keagy turned in a 542 card for the Bombers. Hal Madry was the leader of the All-Sports attack with 530.

Howard Andrews checked in with 554 in pacing the Stars to their first sweep of the season and Morris Ray upended 543 sticks for the Raiders.

Musclemen Sweep Into League Lead

The Guided Muscles instigated a major reshuffling of positions in the Field Services last week and took advantage of the situation to grab off the top rung themselves.

Picking on the erstwhile leading Expeditors, the Musclemen wiped out their three-point deficit and moved out ahead by a point. The Essobees ended the evening in the third slot, another point off the pace.

Fred Stewart was the top gunner in the GM attack that accounted for a total pinfall of 2925 and, more important, four straight wins. Stewart upended 553 sticks while Joe Holub, George Farrar and Howard Jess turned in 531 cards.

The Essobees turned a three-man attack loose on the Gyro's and used it in taking three out of four. Jim Haight set the pace with 566 with Ken Thew and Bob Adams giving him plenty of support.

The Crackers got a 541 from Sam Boda in taking three points from the Washouts and Major Fowler led the Satellites to a 3 to 1 win over the Rebels. Baker Real Estate won two points and split another in their match with the Chiefs.

Pistol Team Cops Two Miami Titles

Redstone shooters ruled two of the classifications at the recent Florida State International Pistol championships held at the Palmetto Pistol Club in Miami.

SP4 Johnny Jetton, of the Missile Command, swept the three matches that were contested in the sharpshooter class, and a Missile School officer, Lt. Richard Zehl, duplicated the feat in the marksmanship class.

Jetton and Zehl were part of a six-man team from Redstone that participated in the meet. Making the trip to Miami with them were. SP4 Ralph Bischoff, and SFC Carl LeBeaumont, both of whom fired in the expert class, PFC Raymond Moskovita, a sharpshooter, and MSGT Conrad Inamorati, who was entered in the marksman class.

It was the first competition for the recently organized Redstone team. Sgt. Inamorati, the team captain, said that the Arsenal shooters displayed considerable promise in the Miami meet and that he is looking forward to entering additional competition in the southeastern states during the next few months.

Potential Policemen Are Offered Early Releases

"Early Out" offers have been made to military short-termers in a new program instituted by the Defense Department to assist local law enforcement agencies in the recruitment of qualified personnel.

In announcing the program Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara said that it was being implemented at the request of President Johnson in an effort to help fill some 15,000 vacancies in police agencies throughout the nation.

Under it, servicemen who receive a firm employment or training offer from a legally constituted City, County, State, or Federal government law enforcement agency, can be released up to 90 days earlier than their scheduled separation date.

Although the program was initially aimed at strengthening the police forces in major metropolitan cities, provisions have been made to include every legally constituted public policy agency in the country. However, the program does not apply to employment with private agencies.

Those servicemen who might be interested in employment with a police agency, such as the one in their home town, can obtain additional information on the program by inquiring at the Military Personnel Office.

MAJOR RECEIVES BRONZE STAR

Maj. Lorin B. Farr, Jr. received from Col. Paul B. Schuppener, commandant of the U. S. Army Missile and Munitions Center and School, recently the Bronze Star Medal for outstanding meritorious service Farr earned while stationed in the Republic of Vietnam.

Maj. Farr is currently a student at the Missile and Center and School. He is a native of Ogden, Utah, and a graduate of the U. S. Army Academy, West Point, New York.

The Major entered the Army on June 4, 1958. Before coming to Redstone Arsenal he was assigned to the "Redball Express" Control Office in the Republic of Vietnam.

Contract Let By ARPA For Project GLOW

An $1,128,000 U. S. Army contract has been awarded to the Missiles and Space Division of General Electric Company to perform work for the Advanced Research Projects Agency.

Under the incrementally funded contract, GE will conduct research on Project GLOW, — part of ARPA's Project DEFENDER program which is a study of ballistic missile defense systems. Work will be done at Philadelphia, Pa., White Sands Missile Range, N. M., and Kwajalein Island.

The program is under the technical direction of the Re-entry Physics Branch, Advanced Research Projects Division of the U. S. Army Missile Command's Research and Development Directorate. The Missile Command manages the program for ARPA, an agency of the Department of Defense.

Negotiating the contract for the Army was the Missile Command's Procurement and Production Directorate.

ACCOUNTANTS TO MEET

The Huntsville Chapter, Federal Government Accountants Association, will meet at the Carriage Inn at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Guest speaker will be James N. Bloodworth, Circuit Judge, Eighth Judicial Circuit of Alabama. A native of Decatur, Judge Bloodworth holds a BS degree in commerce and an LLB degree in law from the University of Alabama.

All FGAA members and their spouses are urged to attend.

Zoological Scholar Is Also Sergeant First Class

A man who had dropped out of high school in the 10th grade stood at the podium at the American Association of Zoological Parks and Aquariums' convention in Tampa, Fla. last week and delivered a 45-minute talk on "The Pigmy Hippopotamus." Every ear in the convention hall was tuned with rapt attention to what he was saying, for the man is an internationally recognized zoological scholar.

This man, who does not have a "Ph.D." after his name, has a "SFC" preceding it. He is Sergeant First Class Marvin L. Jones, the non-commissioned officer in charge of the Training Aids Department at the Army Missile and Munitions Center and School.

SFC. Jones' interest in the animal kingdom developed at an early age. "My father was an artist," he recalls, "and I used to watch him paint animals. When I was old enough to walk I was dragged to the zoo every Sunday."

Young Jones' interest in animals went into hibernation for many years. It was not fully awakened until after he entered the Army in 1951. "I was stationed in Europe with the 36th Medical Battalion," he said, "and began visiting zoos throughout the continent." Jones even saw the famed East Berlin Zoo, a place where few American zoologists have been.

Since those initial visits, SFC Jones has been to over 200 zoological parks, aquariums and museums throughout the United States, Canada, England, Scotland, Belgium, France, Denmark, Austria, Italy, Sweden, Switzerland, Holland, East Germany, West Germany, Japan and South Korea.

"One reason I stay in the Army, even though I've been offered more lucrative positions in zoological areas," says the 39 year old bachelor, "is that I'm given the opportunity to travel and visit so many different zoos."

His travels have provided him with a wealth of zoological information for his many published speeches and articles. The sergeant contributed to the zoo portion of the 1967 edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica. He has published a number of articles on specific zoological parks and the zoo business in "Parks and Recreation," "The Brown University Laboratory Newsletter," "International Zoo News," "International Zoo Yearbook," "The Magazine of the Cologne Zoo," and many other publications.

Since the early 50's Jones has served as director of the "Mammals in Captivity Project," which is sponsored by the American Association of Zoological Parks and Aquariums, and the Zoological Society of Philadelphia. The purpose of this project is to prepare the most comprehensive study to date on the captive management of mammals in all zoos of the world.

The list of zoological societies in which Jones holds active membership is longer than a giraffe's neck. Some of the societies to which he belongs are the San Francisco, Cleveland, Washington, D. C., Frankfurt, and London Societies. He is also a member of the international Society and the

SFC. MARVIN L. JONES AND FRIEND

German Society of Mammalogists.

Last month SFC Jones was made a Honorary Life Member of the Zoological Society of San Diego. He is one of eight persons to be honored with a life membership. Included with the sergeant on this elite list are the late Walt Disney and Arthur Godfrey. In terms of its collection, San Diego is now the largest zoological garden in the world.

When not involved with his many zoological activities and with his duties as NCOIC of the Training Aids Department at MMCS, Sergeant Jones works on his extensive stamp collection (he is a member of the American Society of Philatelists) and studies geography. Whether it is stamps, Army duties, or animals, the multi-faceted SFC Marvin L. Jones does not monkey around.

TURKEY SOUP is a real treat for any stomach that gets Army C-rations day after day in the field. At least, that's the remedy some 1st Infantry Division medics use for what they call "frustrated stomach." Members of the forward aid station of the 1st Battalion, 18th Infantry, make their soup with a single-burner stove, several large tin cans, and a little creativity. The recipe; onions obtained from the mess hall before going on an operation, wild hot peppers from the jungle, a can of turkey loaf, some cheddar cheese from a ration can, and a packet of vegetable soup sent from the United States. The blend is said to produce "exceptional digestive satisfaction." (ANF)

RED CROSS BLOODMOBILE COORDINATOR—Maj. Donald E. Kreuel accepts a certificate of appreciation from the Red Cross Regional Blood Coordinator, Bruce Grant. The certificate was presented for the Major's participation as Coordinator in the Arsenal's monthly Bloodmobile visits. Record shattering blood donations have been collected by the Red Cross Bloodmobile here during Major Kreuel's assignment. He has received a new assignment and is now on leave. He was Troop Commander.

HONOR GRADUATE—Sally Lankford, an employee of the Management Planning and Control Office in the Supply and Maintenance Directorate, accepts her certificate in recognition of having completed an extension course in programming and budgeting from the U. S. Army Finance School. M. K. Fowler, chief of of Financial Management Section, makes the presentation and offers his congratulations to Miss Lankford who completed the course with honors.

$16 MILLION SPENT FOR ARMY SUPPLIES

Contracts and orders for goods and services at the Army Missile Command ran to more than $16 million during the last month to cover missile repair parts and supply items.

Firms in the Southeast received approximately $1.6 million of the total with Huntsville's share some $900,000.

Most of the largest awards went to companies which furnish office equipment and supplies, food, and repairs. This does not include the contracts for a million dollars or more awarded for procurement of missile systems.

The contracts are negotiated and

STANLEY, the canine mascot of Headquarters Troop, 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment, has given birth to seven puppies. This may not sound like much of an achievement for a dog, but how about a dog suffering from shell shock? Stanley was injured as a result of being too close to a Viet Cong executed by the Missile Command Procurement and Production Division.

claymore mine when it went off. Despite this setback, Stanley took the births in her shaky stride. With seven new bounceless mascots, the Regiment will send Stanley to Sacramento, Calif., to be reunited with her owner, Jeff Williams, who was on active duty as a specialist fourth class at the time of the claymore incident. (ANF)

Complete Dispersal AUCTION

Saturday, Dec. 30th, 10:01 71/100 A.M.

A NEW 8 ROOM BRICK HOME, 2 BATHS, SWIMMING POOL, TWO CHICKEN HOUSES, 4 ROOM HOUSE AND BATH, OTHER OUTBUILDINGS, 40 ACRE FARM, SOLD IN SIX TRACTS AND AS A WHOLE, 50 HEAD OF HOGS, SOME EXCELLENT BROOD SOWS, HAY, FARM EQUIPMENT AND SHOP EQUIPMENT BELONGING TO MR & MRS. H. B. BYFORD. LOCATED 5 MILES EAST OF HARTSELLE, ALABAMA, ON HIGHWAY 36, 20 MILES FROM HUNTSVILLE, 18 MILES SOUTHEAST OF DECATUR, JUST A SHORT DISTANCE FROM NEW I-65, NOW BEING BUILT.

THE FARM

40 acres on the corner of two roads with 1,320' fronting on Highway 36. All practically level, some woods on the lower end. This lovely home has 8 rooms, 2 baths, 4 bedrooms upstairs and built-in wall-to-wall carpet throughout. One bedroom now being used for office downstairs, living room, den, kitchen and bath. This is one of the most modern homes ever built in Hartsville. It has central heat and air. Built by a contractor for his own home, and there is nothing but A-1 material from the footings to the roof. Has a screened-in back porch that can be used as a patio. The house is located on a rise overlooking Hwy. 36 on a well sodded lawn with flowers and shrubbery.

In the rear of the home just a little ways from the swimming pool is an everlasting well house built of brick. It has pump inside and will not freeze. There is also a modern storm shelter back of the house. Has a modern utility shop, an metal barn, two chicken houses that are 40' x 300' with all equipment. These houses will house 5,000 hens each. There is also a new 4 room and bath dwelling.

With this long frontage at the lower end of this 40 acre farm, there has been a road cut through to plan for the future 30 beautiful building lots. These have not been developed, but someone could develop them and pay for the entire farm. This is one of the most modern farms you will find along Highway 36, fenced and cross fenced. There are farrowing pens for the hogs in the barn and in back of the shop there is an egg room for culling and handling of eggs. Regardless of price, this is one of the most excellent opportunities offered by this auction company in 30 years experience in selling.

This farm will be sold in tracts and as a whole; the highest price will determine the sale.

The farm is on a direct route from Hartsville to the Rocket City of Huntsville, and is only 18 miles from Decatur. It is in the section of north Alabama where there are more manufacturing plants and more job opportunities than any other part of Alabama or Tennessee.

Tract No. 1 consists of 310' frontage on Highway 36, going back 1,340' deep. This is a well located tract having good frontage for a motel, service station or any kind of commercial property. It is also an excellent home site and baby farm. Has some woods on the back.

Tract No. 2 consists of 10.76 acres with 350' frontage on Highway 36, going back 1,340' deep. Has excellent home sites or good frontage for any kind of commercial property. Tract No. 2 joins Tract 1 and is the tract that can be subdivided into 30 good lots. If you are a developer or are looking to the future, be sure to look at Tracts 1,2.

Tract No. 3 joins Tract 2 and has several home sites with an excellent site in a wooded area. It has 5.7 acres with 165' frontage on Hwy. 36 and is level, beautiful tract of land.

Tract No. 4 has 165' frontage on Hwy. 36, going back 1,340'. Has a lot of shade and wooded area. Excellent frontage for commercial property or a home site.

Tract No. 5 is the main tract, a corner lot with 330' frontage on Hwy. 36. Has the 8 room home, swimming pool, storm shelter, utility shop and stock barn. The lovely two story home is only two and one-half years old. Wall to wall carpeting, storm doors and windows. This is one of the most picturesque settings in this area. All the buildings on this tract are in excellent condition. Mr. Byford built this home to live in and lavished a lot of thought and detail on it. It is brick veneer, with good insulation throughout. This is a practical floor plan where every member of your family will feel at home.

Tract No. 6 is an excellent tract for making money. It will make as much money as any tract that we will sell on sale day. It consists of 4.70 acres with 620' frontage on the road. The two chicken houses are on this tract, also the 4 room and bath dwelling. The chicken houses are making money now and will make you money, equipped with the finest equipment making money can buy including automatic waterers and feeders. This is a business in itself and will make an excellent buy. This tract will pay for itself in a few years.

NEAR JOBS—QUALITY, BEAUTY, LIVEABILITY!

Perfect base for family happiness going! If you're tired of living in an outdated home or have come to see how foolish it is paying rent, then give your family the home they deserve. Give them this quality brick home with its many features for good living. It's built right with 8 spacious rooms and a practical floor plan. Every family member will quickly feel at home. There's every convenience from a modern bath to a streamlined kitchen with its modern cabinets, electric stove and hot water wiring. It will be an excellent place to live and commute to a job in one of the booming towns nearby. You'll have plenty of space for a garden, chickens, pets or any kind of livestock. You can save more of your salary as millions of Americans are finding. Check with your family, then be at the auction for this great opportunity sale.

If you are looking for a farm that is excellent in every way, be sure and attend this auction of real estate, equipment, hay, and farm equipment belonging to Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Byford.
